County seeks restructuring answers

by Jeff Wilson

Members of Hastings County Council took the opportunity to question local MPPs as well as a Ministry of Municipal Affairs staff member on restructuring, last Thursday, in Belleville.

The popular question centred on whether the provincial government would force municipalities to amalgamate if they didn't initiate the process themselves. The answer was "no" from MPPs Harry Danford (Hastings-Peterborough) and Doug Rollins (Quinte), as well as Warren Sleeth of the Ministry of Municipal Affairs.

Danford stated that if the municipalities study the issue of amalgamation and can show there is no savings then the provincial government will accept that.

Sleeth said that as long as the municipalities can continue to provide an acceptable level of service to its ratepayers at a price they can accept, taking into account the next wave of provincial transfer payment cuts, then that is acceptable to the ministry.

Sleeth took the opportunity to discuss the restructuring and amalgamation projects under way in neighboring municipalities.

In the counties of Prescott and Russell a proposal has been put forth to create four lower tier municipalities, made up of groups of two, three and four municipalities, that will include 28 local politicians and one county council. Currently, there are 18 lower tier municipalities with 67 local politicians and one county council. The savings is estimated at $750,000 per group of municipalities. Five municipalities did not participate in amalgamation talks and now two are asking for a commission. The proposal was approved by local municipalities and county council, and was to be approved by the ministry last week.

In Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry a county proposal has called for six lower tiers made up of groups of three, four and five municipalities with approximately 36 local politicians and one county council with 12 politicians. Currently, there are 20 lower tier municipalities with 110 politicians. The savings from amalgamation is estimated at $750,000 per group of municipalities, per year; and at the county level $100,000 per year.

The deadline for implementing amalgamation after Jan. 1, 1997 but before the next municipal election will be June 1st, which is the date a proposal must be sent into the minister. The deadline for any amalgamation after the next election, but basing election on amalgamation has not been set, Sleeth said.

Sleeth urged county council members to contact neighboring municipalities that are currently in amalgamation processes for input and information.

Former MPP Clarke Rollins always working for constituents

Clarke T. Rollins who served the people of the area well as a provincial representative, passed away last Monday night. He was 84.

Rollins served as MPP from 1959 to 1981 for various riding boundaries that included the outskirts of Belleville to the northern boundary of Hastings over his 22 years. During his lengthy term in office, Rollins served under three different leaders including Leslie Frost, John Roberts and William Davis. He followed a family tradition of political service and was the youngest person to serve as Warden in his time. His father served as Warden in 1924, making them the first father and son combination to hold the office.

He was born in Coe Hill where he spent much of his life. He then moved to L'Amable around 1960.

Rollins was a successful distributor for Shell Oil for over 50 years.

He was an active member of the Masonic Lodge and of its associated orders, Shrine Club and Jesters. He was a life member of several branches.

Village Council discuss Nevada ticket licence fee policy

by Jeff Wilson

Another request for a Nevada ticket licence fee break sparked discussion at Madoc Village Council last Tuesday.

A request was made by the Madoc Youth Bowling Council for a licence fee break which has been granted to four other local organizations. The village has reduced the licence fee from three per cent of the prize money to a yearly fee of $250, provided the proceeds are spent within the village. Council granted the request from the Madoc Y.B.C. After granting the request, Reeve Tom Deline said he hoped the money raised was not going towards trips to Toronto for the bowlers, because that was not council's intent. He added that the money raised from Nevada ticket sales has to be spent locally.

Clerk-Treasurer-Administrator Doug Parks informed council that the village had lost approximately $4,000 in licensing fees in 1996, because of its new policy.

Deline defended the policy, saying that the money is going back into the community and if the higher fees were charged the organizations would be coming to council looking for financial support, which they are not at this time.

Village Council continue to discuss sign changes

by Jeff Wilson

Madoc Village Council continue to discuss changes to the welcome signs.

Councillor Jim Bonter provided council with a copy of the idea the CHSS student came up with. The sign would include the words "Welcome To Madoc", as well as the village coat-of-arms, that includes the thistle representing Scotland, the rose representing England, the leek representing Wales and the shamrock representing Ireland. The sign will also state the village was established in 1878, and at the bottom the saying "Heart of Hastings County" will be included.

Bonter said the student would add color to his sign idea. Two color schemes have been suggested: one using green, red and white, colors of the village coat-of-arms and the other, with black, gold and white the colors of the high school.

Reeve Tom Deline suggested the lettering be outlined in white to make it stand out better.

Crawford a "true Madocian"

Tom Deline provided the Eulogy he delivered at the funeral service for Gordon Crawford on Nov. 26, 1996.

When Chad came to the house on Sunday and asked if I would do the Eulogy for his Dad I said yes, but I would keep it short.

I thought, I'll just describe Gordon Louis Crawford as I knew him - Crow, Big Gord, Gordie, Big Buddy.

This will be easy 'cause askids we watched cartoons nearly every Saturday morning together. We played football in high school and there was only one place for Big Gord. Snap position - protect the quarterback. Gord was also the only one who could buy beer, when we were all underage, and not get asked for I.D.

Yes, it's going to be easy to describe Gord -

A Husband - Sharon and me went shopping. Sharon and me went for a drive. Sharon and me stopped there to eat. Gotta get the living room done for Sharon. Sharon needs a better car. Coffee Tom? Sharon'll get it.

A Father - Gotta pick Janet up. Put brakes on Janet's car today. Me and Chad went fishing today. Me and Chad went to the gun club and shot a few rounds.

A Brother - George, he's retired and up at the lake now. Charlie's doing fine - lives up at fiddle country, you know Shelbourne. Gotta get time to get those loonies over to Molly. You know, my big sister Joan and Bill he's selling the best damn canoes in Canada.

Gord was a true Madocian. Caring, compassionate, entrenched in his strong beliefs. He had a passion for the Oddfellows Lodge and his brothers and sisters.

On trips to the Municipal Conventions in Toronto we always went for a three or four mile walk after dinner and just to be safe we took Gord along, as protector. Gord always complained about the walking and his feet hurt, but he was always the first one there waiting to start with his walking shoes on.

While walking up Yonge St. one evening, my wife Kim and Crichton Harrop were ahead of us pointing up to the old buildings and just yakking away when Gord said, "What are they looking at and so excited about?" I said they're talking about the architecture, you know "Gothic and all that stuff. Gord said, "Hell it's all just cement."

On our annual fishing trips it didn't seem to matter that we used the same bait. Gord always caught the most fish. It must have been the $9.95 Tilley look alike he wore.

Everyone who knew Gord always saw a friendly man with a ready smile. We know Gord loved to talk and sometimes he philosophized and sometimes he reminisced and sometimes he dreamed.

As a Millwright Electrician he was a loyal and dedicated employee of Rex-Can who knew they needed to keep production going, so his fellow employees could produce the products, to allow the company to make a profit, so they all had jobs tomorrow.

You might find Gord beside Wayne Hagerman cooking hot dogs at the school Fun Fair or congratulating Charlie Gordon for the success with the school recycling programme or wearing a "silly" Friar Tuck outfit at the four corners or just spending time with good friends like Enc and Judy or Joe and Pat. Maybe he had just talked to Pete or Bill or Frank or down the street at Earl's or spoke of his good friend Lynn Empey.

As a councillor on Village Council, Gord regularly topped the polls at election time and he was a true team player, always mindful of good planning and development, while keeping the taxpayer in mind. As chair of Protection and Development, Gord was very proud of the Fire Department. Gord was one of those people who thought out loud, sometimes he even confused us, but he was sorting things out. A new fire hall, air ambulance helipad, and reconditioning the old building for a works garage. Whoa now people let's be practical about this.

No Taj Mahal. Now let's see, proper site, good access to main roads, basic block building with radio room, small office, change rooms and showers and washrooms (might be women on this department some day), small training and meeting room, with small kitchenette. Nothing fancy. A trained crew and two fire trucks equals two bays, a trained rescue team and vehicle equals one bay, and you never know with all these cutbacks and this building has to last a long time we better stick on another bay just in case they try to remove ambulance

It will take a lot of planning, working and hoping to bring the trip together, Mr. Simmons told the audience.

"It's a really big exchange," he said. "We have just begun to work."

"There are a tremendous amount of funds that have to be raised to cover the exchange," he admitted.

Live sounds: The trumpet quartet of Aaron Wrightly, Crystal Brock, Allan Tam and Anisha Main delighted the audience at last week's big Norwood High music night. The entertaining show also featured stirring performances by the concert band, the dieland and, the flute duo of Corrine Howell and Michelle Beckford. Apart from the presentation the 1995-96 music awards, the highlight of the concert was the announcement of the band's exciting exchange with Uclulett, B.C., a small village located amidst the splendour of Vancouver Island's ancient rain forest. Fundraising efforts, already started, will continue in earnest to help raise money for this extraordinary April adventure. They will host Uclulett in February. Photo/Bill Freeman

Pine Ridge announces changes in personnel for '97 season

By Rolly Ethier

There's been a change of the guard at the Pine Ridge Golf and Country Club for the 1997 season.

Dick Burgess has left his post as general manager for an opportunity to become a part owner and manager at the Briar Fox Golf and Country Club, formerly the Belleville Golf and Country Club.

To fill the void, directors of the Pine Ridge layout have moved quickly, solving the problem with the appointment of three different managers.

Well-known clubmaker Gary Alex takes over as Manager of Golf Operations while Al Ingram continues as greens superintendent and Darlene Priest will be dining room manager.

"I know I speak for everyone when I say we're all confident we'll have a very smooth-working team taking care of business next season by filling these three key positions with competent people," said Pete Crate, a club director.

"We had a successful 1996 season here and we're looking forward to an even greater season in 1997."

Crate said all three appointees—Gary, Al and Darlene—will be operating their own departments, including adhering to individual budgets and inventories.

Alex, who previously operated his business from a shop located at his home on Highway 30 south, intends to make the Pine Ridge pro shop his new base of operations. He says he'll continue to take orders for individual clubs or sets at Pine Ridge and will have many of his crafted custom clubs on display for sale.

"As a member at Pine Ridge for a number of years, I know a lot of the current members and what their priorities are. My efforts will be directed towards catering to the public and making every visit to Pine Ridge as enjoyable as possible. I'm also excited about the challenge of making Pine Ridge the best possible location in the area to play golf."

Roof On Patio Deck

Club directors are extremely pleased about the addition of a new roof covering most of the outside patio deck which was completed in mid-September. It now offers members the option of spending more time outside for dining purposes. A small area near the railing was left without a roof for the sunshine enthusiasts.

"This is a real asset to the club," says Bob Petty, a club director. "It's a project we've been anxious to provide for the members for a number of years."

Greens superintendent Al Ingram, who earned high praise as a result of the excellent course conditions that prevailed last season, reports that the 1996 irrigation project was completed. Future course plans include new trees and new bunkers while management also intends to add a roof on the deck adjacent the gazebo near the first tee.

Pine Ridge is now planning a special sale at the club Saturday, Dec. 14th when pro shop stock will be offered at special prices as possible Christmas gifts. Shoppers are invited to attend from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. There'll be coffee and a hot bowl of chili to keep you warm while you peruse available golf items.

New Management Trio—A new management group has been installed to operate the Pine Ridge Golf and Country Club for the 1997 season. Two of the directors, Bob Petty (left) and Pete Crate (right), made the announcement. Appointed to the management team, are, from left: Al Ingram, greens superintendent; Darlene Priest, dining room manager; and Gary Alex, head of golf operations manager. photo/Rolly Ethier.

The next meeting for Campbellford Breast Cancer Support Group will be held one week later than usual on Tuesday, December 10th at 12 noon to 1:30 p.m.

boost to help most folk who have trouble getting out of the chair. This device costs $300 as opposed to $1,100-$1,200 for power lift chairs.

This exercise, of top priority, was emphasized by Dr. George Turnbull of Dalhousie University in Halifax. He is a practising physiotherapist who has advanced several plans for Parkinson people who freeze when walking.

He suggests: load the radio with marching music; the rhythm, for whatever reason, keeps you moving. A flashlight beam, rhythms of 1+2, 2, helps many to get going! But do get going! All kind of statistics support the fact that those who exercise cope far better, physically and mentally with Parkinsons than those who do not.

Tai Chi was advocated as an A plus regime in which to get involved. Variations of the basic moves make this 1,200-year-old exercise system ideal for anyone afflicted with a type of physical problem.

Those of us who so far have escaped even minor affliction need to be involved, as well, in systematic exercise.

Planning begins for big music exchange

won by Jeanne Kavish of Norwood.

Warren Solomon, winner of the night's $50/50 draw, also donated his $44 prize back to the exchange campaign fund.

The music night also gave Mr. Simmons a chance to present the school's annual music awards (for 1995-96). These awards recognize student contributions and participation in the music program. This year's winners were: Aaron Wrightly, Most Valuable Junior Bandperson; David Hay, Most Improved Junior Bandperson; Angela Toms, Most Improved Senior Bandperson; Mike Davidson, Most Valuable Senior Bandperson and Mike Wrightly, Most Valuable Bandperson.

The Band Parents Executive, instrumental in helping with fundraising and other activities, was also honoured by Mr. Simmons and the band. Executive members include Leslie Rogers, President; Bea Galica, Vice President; Jackie Moore, Secretary; Penny McCutcheon, Treasurer and Fundraisers, Shirley Hay, Nancy Deen, Bev Wrightly and Barbara Jay.

Past Treasurer, Sharon Cahill, was also honoured by the band for her six years with the executive.

Mr. Simmons reserved special words of thanks and praise to local organizations which have helped the NDHS music program. These groups include the Norwood Lions and Lioness Clubs; the Havelock Lions Club; the Royal Canadian Legion in Norwood and Havelock and Elwood Hamilton Bus Lines.

During Thursday's fundraising show, featured performances were given by the Concert Band, the award-winning Dixieland Band; the flute duo of Corinne Howell and Michelle Beckford and the trumpet quartet of Crystal Brock, Alysha Main, Allan Tam and Aaron Wrightly. Watch for the NDHS band in this Saturday's Havelock Santa Claus Parade and at Norwood's second annual Christmas Tree-lighting ceremony on Dec. 11 (6:30 p.m.). And mark Feb. 27 on your calendar—that's the night the NDHS band and their counterparts from Ucheltet entertain the community during a special musical evening.

THERE IS NO BETTER TIME TO BECOME AN OWNER!
LOW INTEREST & A GOOD SELECTION TO CHOOSE FROM AT COMPETITIVE PRICES!

All rights reserved.)

Over the years I've had many readers inquire about who I am and what I do. Hopefully, that's not their polite way of asking "Who is this nut and what does he know about snowmobiling?" As a season-opener, I'll attempt to establish a comfort level so you'll be confident on getting the straight goods.

I've been a snowmobiler for over 20 years, originally using my Kawartha Lakes cottage as a winter base. In 1988 I retired from a twenty year career in the business end of the music industry to pursue my interest in writing. Since my two favourite past times are snowmobiling and cottaging, that's where I decided to focus my attention. After all, I was already living the research.

Over the next couple of years, I self-syndicated two columns, The Intrepid Snowmobiler and The Intrepid Cottager to over 75 Ontario weekly and daily newspapers. As the snowmobiling column grew in popularity, two changes occurred: snowmobile and recreation publications began to call for editing assignments; and I had to increase my snow time to collect experiences to write about. Tough job, eh?

The Intrepid Snowmobiler is not a per-

The Intrepid Snowmobiler "Who I am"

By Craig Nicholson
"The weekly newspaper column for snowmobilers."

formance column. That's because I choose to provide news, information and tips for the average family snowmobiler - material that is user-friendly and hands-on practical to make your day-to-day riding more comfortable, safe and fun. Frankly, I don't care how snowmobiles work. I only want to write about the going and the doing. Also, as my riding companions will attest, I couldn't tech-talk my way out of a burning garage, much less effect a serious sled repair. But I do pack all the tools, just in case!

I always try to keep my writing perspective down to earth. With a few exceptions, the adventures I relate can be duplicated by other enthusiastic snowmobilers, couples included. My opinions on snowmobiling and products is based on actual experiences and/or usage in normal touring situations. My goal is to keep it light, entertaining and fun.

Today, I continue to write both syndicated columns. The Intrepid Snowmobiler now appears in 20 state and provincial publications too. I also write two regular national snowmobiling columns and another one for OFSC club newspapers. As a free-lance journalist, I pen touring stories for Snow Goer Canada, Outdoor Canada and Cottage Life Magazines. Recently, The Intrepid Snowmobiler hit the airwaves with a radio feature broadcast on 50 Ontario stations. And if I haven't out-lived my welcome after all this, I also appear weekly on the new Snowmobiler Television Show (MCTV, CHRO & CHEX - Sundays 5:30 pm; CKCO Sundays 10 am; CHFD Wednesdays 7 pm.) And no, I'm not always the raving maniac you'll see on the tube!

To meet all of these obligations, I ride over 10,000 kilometres each season and trailer or travel about the equivalent. The national magazines require touring stories from all parts of Canada, so much of my winter schedule is planned around out-of-province riding. For instance, in the first three months of 1996, I was snowmobiling or en route for 75 of 89 days. Even as I write this column, I'm juggling five different touring destinations amidst other snowmobiling commitments to set a 1997 winter calendar.

I try to ride early and late winter in British Columbia or the north of any province with snow. But weather can play havoc: last winter I had to cancel trips to Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island and Gaspe when Mother Nature turned off their snow abnormally. A mad scramble ensued trying to replace confirmed tours with suitable alternate destinations.

Next April, when I finally haul my weary bones out of the saddle of my Ski-Doo Grand Touring SE and return it to Dunford's of Havelock for summerizing, it will only be to plunk myself down at my computer for the next six months to write 1997/98 stories and columns. If I can't be doing it, at least I'll be thinking about it - even if it is the middle of summer! In re-reading this debut column, I can understand anybody who still thinks I'm nuts, but I trust my snowmobiling credentials meet your approval.

Until next time, happy trails and remember: Protect Our Environment - Stay On The Trail. For club or driver training info, contact the OFSC at (705) 739-7669. To play your Ontario tour, call 1-800-263-SLED. To Bring A Buddy to Snowarama, call 1-800-461-3391.

Toronto man caught speeding three times on the same day

Delroy Brown, of Toronto, will appear in Napanee Provincial Offences Court Dec. 18 to face a careless driving charge, after OPP stopped him three separate times on the same day for driving at speeds in excess of 165 km/h.

The OPP received information on Nov. 28, that a vehicle was seen travelling at approximately 180 km/h westbound on Highway 401, from Kingston.

At 5:35 a.m. Const. Fred Huizinga, from Napanee detachment, stopped the vehicle and issued a summons for 170 km/h to Brown. The officer then told Quinte OPP he expected the vehicle to continue speeding.

Const. Prent, from Quinte OPP, stopped the same vehicle at approximately 6:15 a.m., and the same driver was charged with 165 km/h.

The driver again accelerated after police, and Const. Prent followed the vehicle as it continued to travel at speeds nearing 170 km/h.

According to police, the driver followed other vehicles too closely, and made some unsafe lane changes.

The third time the vehicle was stopped, the driver was arrested for careless driving, and the vehicle was towed to the Quinte Detachment.

Budget Car Rental, owner of the vehicle, was notified of the incident and the rental agreement was voided.

Brown was served a summons for careless driving and released.

Diary of a hockey mom...

The Game!

By Mrs. Mom
(Special to The Register)

The Rink - If you have lived in Canada for more than one winter, you don't need me to explain the game of Hockey to you. Howie Meeker, Don Cherry and any number of individuals could do that far more eloquently than I can.

However, if you are new to the game of Minor Hockey - from Jr. Tyke to Juvenile - then there are some things I can tell you to make the game far more interesting and enjoyable. You have your player dressed, velcroed, snapped, tied and padded to the best of your ability. They're in the dressing room with the Coach, and now it's time for you to enjoy watching your budding Mario Lemieux or Felix Potvin do their stuff.

But first things first. Is the booth open?

The Booth is the special place in arenas where you can catch up on all the news of your town. It doesn't matter who's working there, they've seen it all - for at least that evening.

There is one night a week where at least three, and sometimes six, games are played in the home arena.

The games start at 5 pm and don't finish until after 11 pm and it is on these evenings that you can visit with most of the village. I sometimes think town meetings should be held at the arena between periods of hockey games. They would be much shorter, and far more would be accomplished because of the huge turnout.

But back to the booth. The booth can provide you with hot chocolate, popcorn, pop and sundry penny candies that now cost ten cents each. You must time your visits to the booth most carefully. If you make the error of approaching after one game has finished and the next one starts, expect long line-ups of sweaty people in half buttoned shirts and undone ties. These are the players who just finished playing and they need that Slushie and those candies to revive their energy after a hard-played game.

You visit the booth about half-way through the first period. This guarantees no line-ups because everyone is on the bleachers cheering on the team.

(This rule also applies to the public washrooms where you don't run into players but you do run into their parents).

If you are lucky enough to bring a younger sibling to your player's game then you are in for a treat. This means, however, that your timing to the booth and washroom will be completely destroyed. Little ones have to gobon, especially if they're at toilet-training age. So your best bet is to post a sign on the door that says this: particular stall is not working and then you can use it at your convenience. But don't get caught doing this.

Your second line of attack is to form a consortium of other mothers who also have little ones, and set up a schedule. That way you do not have to worry that all the stalls are occupied - each Mom holds it for 15 minutes and everyone takes turns. This consortium is also handy for treat purchases. Each Mom purchases something different and enough for everyone so that the munchkins have a steady stream of snacks going into their mouths. This keeps them happy and you get to see some of the action on the ice.

Most arenas have a heated area to sit and watch the game. This is also where the booth is located and, with luck, where the washrooms are located. This heated area is where you will find all the Moms and their little ones because it is usually enclosed and easy to patrol. The Dads are out at rink-side making sure their player gets equal ice time.

The entertainment level of the arena is unlimited. You can keep siblings entertained for hours with such favourites as "I Spy The Beer Bottle," "Who Is That Lady With The Big Nose?" "When Is It Over?" "Will the Zamboni Come Out Soon & Run Over The Referee?" "What Did That Lady Say On The P.A.?" and my personal favourite - "Let's Find Daddy."

Then the horn goes and the game is over. Make very sure you check the scoreboard before they turn it off. You must know the score before you see your player or you will be privileged to have the silent treatment all the way home. The silent treatment is not always a bad thing, but it can carry over into other behaviour such as "Then you have to get me a treat" or "You don't care about me."

If you miss the score, ask any Dad, they always know. (Mom's hockey saga continues when she mulls over The Aftermath!)

MEMORIALS

IVANY MAX, In loving memory, dear husband, who passed away December 6, 1993. A few little words so soft and tender.

Just to say, I still remember
My heart is still broken
My eyes will never dry
Things I feel most deeply
Are the hardest things to say
If I could have one lifetime wish
One dream that could come true,
I'd pray to God with all my heart
For yesterday, and you Always with love Wife Kay (48-30-1)

service someday. We can stick old Mel in there for now. OK I'll support it but keep it practical.

The Fire Department wants this new insurance plan, but they have agreed to pay for it themselves so I think we should support them. Yes Gord supported the men and women of the Madoc Fire Company.

Since I have known the Crawford family for many years it's easy for me to simplify a description of Gordon L. Crawford - "A Good Friend".

Here's a short verse by O.B. Kauffman that I believe reflects Gord Crawford. It's called "Guest of Heaven".

I must get used to dying this I know.

As one who contemplates a journey, let me go, soul quieted.

of all pretence stripped free

When I set out to find Eternity,
Nothing shall hold me back.

Let no one grieve that I have gone.

I shall take care to leave the shining gate ajar, then, all composed.

I shall arrive gladly end my quest,

as wayfarer returned, a grateful guest bearing a gift of love to greet my host.

R.R. 5 Madoc -- 473-2242

by Karen Nickle

Havelock hosted our Tykes on Nov. 16 and despite a terrific effort shut us out 9-0. Garrett Smith did an outstanding job net for our little Wildcats. Rounding out the Tyke roster are: Jarrod Moore, Kyle Halliday, Brennan Robinson, Trevor Woodward, Ian McNab, Andy Moore, Brian McNab, Jeff Nickle, Kirk Mason, Jake Ascott and Jonathan Salmon.

Our Atom B's travelled to Brighton in league action on Nov. 17 falling 9-3 to their hosts. Mike Preston scored a pair, with assists from Dillon Carman, Brad Robinson and Adam Alexander. Brad Robinson fired in an unassisted shot for the third Wildcat marker.

Despite snoozing through their first period in Deseronto on Nov. 23 our Novice A Wildcats roared to life in second and third period action. Down 3-0, Chad McLean scored a minute and a half into the second, assisted by Travis Gordon. Within a minute and 32 seconds, the Wildcats jumped to a 4-3 lead, with goals by Jonathan McConnell, Brennan Vezina and Chad McLean. Two minutes later, Brennan cinched the lead with his second goal of the match. The Bulldogs fought back to tie the game before the end of the second and regained their lead with a goal midway through the third. With a little over two minutes left in the game, Brennan Vezina capped his day with a hat trick, popping in the winner. Jonathan McConnell posted a pair of assists, with singles for Chad McLean and Tyler Blakely.

Tyler Smith gave a super showing on Nov. 24 for the Novice A's, recording an 8-0 shut-out in North Frontenac. Chad McLean posted a hat trick, with singles by Chad Stein, William Dawes, Darby Smith, Brennan Vezina and Travis Gordon. Tyler Blakely, Jonathan McConnell and Chad Stein picked up a pair of assists, with singles for Chad McLean, Travis Gordon, Mike McCullough and William Dawes.

Brad Robinson chalked up a hat trick on Nov. 24 in the Atom B's 13-4 loss in Stirling. Adam Alexander posted the other Madoc marker. Dillon Carman pitched in with two assists, while Ryan Willemssen, Brian Coe and Billy Blackburn helped out with singles.

Tamiworth fell 6-3 to our Pee wee A Wildcats on Nov. 25. Four unassisted Wildcat goals gave the home team a far-reaching first period lead. T.J. Tomlinson scored a pair with Mike McCann and Ryan Evans posting single goals. T.J. and Jason Wilson notched up assists. Adam McDonald assisted on Tyler Gordon's marker. Rob Reynolds scored the Wildcats third period goal, assisted by T.J. Tomlinson and Adam McDonald. Our Pee wee A's are sporting new sweaters, sponsored by the Madoc Kiwanis Club.

Deseronto delivered a 10-1 defeat to our Atom A's on Nov. 29, with Josh Leaver scoring the shut-out breaker on assists from Caleb Atkinson and Josh Moore.

Our Atom B's hosted Campbellford on Nov. 30, falling 4-1. Brad Robinson assisted Adam Alexander on the Wildcat marker.

Chad McLean's hat trick highlighted a 9-0 Novice A route against visiting North Frontenac on Nov. 30. This penalty-free match included other goals by William Dawes, Jonathan McConnell, Darby Smith, Brennan Vezina and Travis Gordon. William Dawes and Anthony Halliday each picked up a pair of assists and Chad McLean, Jonathan McConnell, Travis Gordon and Mike McCullough pitched in with singles.

After trouncing the Stirling

Pee wee B's earlier this season, our Pee wee A's were anxious to try their luck with the Stirling A's. The host Blues opened the scoring Nov. 30 with an unanswered first period goal. Jason Wilson tied the score on a second period power play with an assist by Tyler Gordon. Stirling poured the pressure on to score a pair before the end of the second. A minute and a half into the third, Mike McCann passed to Jason for his second goal of the game. The Blues fired back a minute later, hiking the score to 4-2, but Jason lifted in an unassisted goal to record a natural hat trick. The Wildcats surged on to go for a tie and when a Madoc penalty was called with 53 seconds left in the game things didn't look hopeful. An awesome rush with 19 seconds left on the clock saw Mike McCann pass to Tyler Gordon for a short-handed tying goal. The Stirling A's are three classifications above our Pee wee A's - congratulations Wildcats for an outstanding game!

Garrett Smith earned this week's Wildcat of the Week for his outstanding effort in net for the Tykes. Garrett receives his choice of a video game or movie rental from Madoc Video. Way to go Garrett!

Someone is watching you...

by Jean Sargent

Crafts and Community Watch was this month's program.

Cooper and Remington Women's Institute had a guest speaker Abby Shukster. Abby is with the Community Watch Program. We have been looking out for each other's homes for a long time, but are now considering joining the program. Ms. Shukster talked to us about proper procedure. Some of the most important rules to follow are, when you see unusual activity around a neighbor's home or a parked car that doesn't belong, try to get information. For instance, a licence number, color and make. You should report this to the police. Anything out of the ordinary may seem unimportant to you but could lead to protecting your neighbors' possessions. In no way should you put your self in danger. Let the police handle it. We are looking into putting signs up throughout the area, but this depends on available funding. A word to the wise...just because there are no signs yet doesn't mean someone isn't watching...

It was also Craft Day. Roll call was, bring a craft you enjoyed doing, was answered by 14 members. Some of the crafts were homemade Christmas decorations, hand-knitted snowmen, rabbit and dishcloths also ceramics.

Karen Woods had painting all the different pieces to make a snowman. Putting the faces on proved to be quite interesting. Have you ever seen a snowman with his eyes, where his ears should go? Laughter could be heard from the outside. When the painting was done Karen glued them for us. Thank you Karen for a fun day. See you next for our Christmas program!

Madoc Township Reeve elected as Warden

Judge O'Flynn (left) and Gerald Reid officially sign the oath of allegiance and declaration of office, during the inaugural meeting of County Council, last Wednesday.

by Jeff Wilson

Madoc Township Reeve Gerald Reid was elected as Hastings County Warden for the coming year and will face continued restructuring talks and additional provincial transfer payment cuts.

The election for the new Hastings County Warden took place at the County building last Wednesday afternoon. Reid replaces Deseronto Reeve Tim Enright.

The Warden's declaration of office and oath of allegiance were performed by Judge John O'Flynn. Following the declaration and oath, County Administrator Bill Bouma helped Reid on with his gown and chain of office, and then escorted him to the Warden's chair. The Past Warden and Reid exchanged gavels.

The invocation was performed by Limerick Township Reeve Clive Wilson, who described Reid as a selfless person for taking on the position in the face of amalgamation and provincial cuts.

In his address, Reid stated he accepted the Warden position with "great pride and humility." He described his coming term as a "challenging year" with continuing restructuring talks and cutbacks. ## Madoc business victim of lottery ticket fraud

A Madoc business has been the victim of a Scratch and Win ticket fraud scam, losing a small amount of money last week to a "crafty" suspect, according to Madoc OPP.

Madoc OPP were called to Siedman's V & S Variety store in the village last Friday, Dec. 6, after the suspect returned to attempt to cash in another winning ticket. An examination of the ticket revealed the suspect had used a cut and paste method to piece together a winning combination on the "Keno - Instant Scratch & Win Ticket."

The suspect is described as a white male, 50-55 years old, with a slender face, average build, salt and pepper colored beard, wearing a green winter toque and beige plaid jacket.

Police would like to remind area businesses to carefully screen winning tickets for alterations before cashing them. Anyone with information of this suspect can call Const. Mike Doucette Jr. at the Madoc OPP detachment (473-4234) or Crime Stopper.

Community Christmas Dinner returns

A Community Christmas Dinner will be held in Madoc Village for the second straight year, this year on Sunday, Dec. 22 at 1:30 p.m.

The event will once again be sponsored by the Madoc Pentecostal Church, along with the local merchants and the Resource Centre.

The dinner will be held at the Pentecostal Church.

Pastor Craig Head of the Madoc Pentecostal Church said the dinner is basically providing a Christmas dinner and fellowship for those in need, lonely seniors, or possibly a person with no family to celebrate with or a student going to school in the area and alone for the holidays.

Ode to Moira Lake

by Les Donaldson
Pine Point, Moira Lake

I'm home on Moira Lake,
It makes me feel so good,
I've tried myself at city life and took all that I could

There is no other feeling to me,
As life upon the water,
To watch the ducks in their flight,
and the swimming of the otter.

I've seen the East Coast land
And the way it makes you feel,
Like you could climb a mountain
Or do the Virginia Reel.

But on Moira Lake, it's the same pace
And peaceful comes to you
With everything in place.

Moira Lake, Moira Lake
A place of life
It takes away your troubles
And your strife

There is no place in this world
That could ever take its place
It warms your heart and soul
And gives you a feeling of grace.

County issues remain the same even 100 years ago

Marmora Reeve Andre Philpot provided this review of what was going in county council 100 years ago, during the inaugural session of County Council last Wednesday.

One hundred years ago Hastings County was already a pretty civilized place. There had already been Township meetings at Sidney for 100 years and County Council meetings for over 50 years.

There is an old adage that the more things change, the more they stay the same. It is surprising how many of today's issues were debated

100 years ago and alas, I suspect they will be debated 100 years from now.

By 1896 the province was coming out of a protracted recession, but County Council was optimistic and generous in its resolutions. The new Warden was from Limerick. Warden Peter Perry Clark had been one of the founders of St. Olaf and practically owned the place. He had built the old wooden dam and owned a mill, a chair factory, a general store and the post office. He served as Reeve of Limerick for the sum of $11 a year. Although he had first been elected to municipal office at the age of 19, it had taken him 40 years to become Warden.

As was the practice, Councillors travelled by train, by carriage and on horseback to attend the five day sessions of County Council. Each session started on a Tuesday. Those from the north were allowed to leave on Friday, a day early, and still got their Saturday honorarium to allow for travel time.

One of the first orders of business was to set the budget for 1896. A grand total of $48,406.60 would be needed to run County services. At that time County responsibilities included schools, the local courts and the jail, as well as most of the services we still provide.

Of the total budget: The Administration of Justice cost $9,000, schools cost $7,200, gravel roads cost $10,000, other roads cost $6,000, the salaries for all County employees $3,110, and in proper understanding of their own worth, the Warden and Councillors set aside $3,000 for themselves -- only $110 less than all the employees got altogether.

Contributions to the County levy range from $8,349.34 for poor old Sidney to $72.65 for Mayo.

One hundred years ago things were looking good in the County. The Prime Minister at the beginning of 1896 was Belleville's own Mackenzie Bowell. Ed Hanlon, the world's champion oarsman, was in town for the summer regatta. Gold was proven, or at least thought to be proven, at Deloro and $200,000 was being invested there by Canadian Consolidated Gold Co. Cheese factories were sprouting up everywhere, even as far north as Bangor, Wicklow and McLure.

Hastings was and is the second largest County in Ontario and the second furthest from end to end. As the north land got settled, new municipalities were created. Separations, not amalgamations, were the order of the day. Tweed separated from Hungerford in 1891, Carlow from May in 1890. Before 1880 Tudor, Cashel, Limerick and Wollaston were united. It seemed that if you got over the 100 population figure, you were allowed to set up government.

Although County Council served less municipalities there were more Councillors -- 39 in all. Sidney represented by the Reeve, by the Deputy-Reeve, by the second Deputy-Reeve and by the third Deputy-Reeve. All probably voting against one another.

Madoc Township had three representatives but they didn't have the Warden like they do now. Throughout the 1890's, Madoc was battling Belleville to become the seat of County Government. Things got so intense that the North Hastings Review reported tongue-in-cheek that "35 men and women are now confined to Belleville jail and the remainder of the community will be received as fast as accommodations will permit."

As always, Council enjoyed an overabundance of free advice from others. The Prisoner's Aid Society told them to set up "farm colonies" for the care and possible cure of perpetual drunkards and petty criminals. The local Grand Jury recommended a "modern system of heat for the jails." Council didn't do that but they tendered out the supply of bread for inmates and accepted a quote of eight cents a loaf for four pound loaves.

Although the Councillors knew how to penny pinch in business matters, they were always generous in their concern for the unfortunate. They were so concerned about the Hospital that they decided to visit en masse. It seemed that the province was cutting back on health care. They had legislated a new maximum stay for patients -- not more than 120 days! Ahh...the good old days. The province provided 20 cents a day per patient which is a figure some of us think they are trying to get back to.

The County and all of the province were rightfully concerned about a new and dangerous offence known as scorching. This had nothing to do with fire and everything to do with speeding. Not by car because there weren't any and not by horse. Scorching was bicycle speeding and a new problem in town. The local judge said if it didn't stop he would put the fines up to $5.

At least once that year County made a mistake, but they didn't do too badly in covering it up. They had sent a committee to report on the Bridge at Chisholm's Rapids. The bridge was found to consist of seven spans totalling 510 feet. There was a lot of rotten wood and the committee was concerned but found it would cost $700 to fix the bridge.

Council in its wisdom ruled that the bridge would be safe for ordinary use for at least another year.

Before the year was up the Council had the honor of making a special presentation for bravery. It was to Robert Tupper Armstrong for his heroic action in saving the life of Byron Mabey who had broken through the bridge at Chisholm's Rapids.

Mr. Armstrong was given a "suitable medal for bravery" and a further $7 for fixing the bridge. Mr. Mabey seems to have gotten nothing except a dunking.

Just like us the 1896 Council wanted to get things finished before adjustments. One hundred years ago Council ended the year discussing what we would mistakenly think was a modern issue -- municipal restructuring. They prepared a memorandum to the Ontario Government setting out their objections to the new County Councils Act, 1896. And that year on Dec. 11, 1896 they resolved to strike a committee to meet with a committee of City Council and asked for a meeting that very night. They obviously felt the issues would have to be settled quickly, and once-and-for-all. Fat chance!

The more things change, the more they stay the same.

Kramp seeks federal PC candidate nomination

Madoc area businessman Daryl Kramp announced Nov. 28 that he is seeking the federal Progressive Conservative nomination for the Hastings-Frontenac-Lennox and Addington.

According to Kramp, the Liberal's promise of jobs, has proved to be nothing more than empty words. During the election they were opposed to free trade, CBC cutbacks GST, and now they promote all of them, Kramp added.

Kramp, who owns a restaurant and catering business on Moira Lake and involved in International Sport projects, said he is fed up with the cynicism of the Chretien Liberals who promised anything and everything to get elected in 1993 and then did the opposite.

He also criticizes the federal government for their handling of the Quebec Referendum, saying their tactics almost resulted in Quebec's secession. Kramp stated he is a strong believer in a united Canada.

Kramp said he believes Canadians are worried about job security. He stated that the top priority of a revitalized PC government would be to abolish obsta-

Alex will continue to operate clubmaking business at home shop

Golf clubmaker Gary Alex is not completely abandoning his home-based Golf Shop on Highway 30 south. Last week's Courier story on management changes at the Pine Ridge Golf Club may have clouded his future plans.

Alex will be taking over as Manager of Golf Operations at Pine Ridge for the 1997 season but any clubmaking work will continue to be performed at his own shop. He'll spend much of his time around the Pine Ridge pro shop next season where he'll take orders for individual clubs or sets and will have many of his custom clubs on display for sale.

"However, I'm still very much in business at my own golf shop and will continue to be available to discuss clubmaking options with my many friends or new customers," says Gary. "I'll continue to be available here throughout the winter months and then I'll alternate between my golf shop and Pine Ridge once the 1997 season starts."

press conference, Moon responded to money questions with "This isn't about money and I don't believe money should be discussed in the sports pages".

"We weren't close, we needed $15,000, and got nothing like that," "All the money will be refunded", he hastens. "As a result, everyone who stepped forward and purchased tickets for the Tweed Muskies will promptly receive a full refund", he states in written text.

Moon is planning to design a "world class" Tweed Muskies T-shirt which all subscribers will receive with their refunds. He believes Tweed needs this presently in light of Dr. Gib Allen's death and the Ministry of Natural Resources moving out of town.

Moon lays a lot of blame. "There is no possibility of operating a team this year because the CFL commissioner and his office have discouraged it." The commissioner's letter, that he received Dec. 6, outlined, he said, that the commissioner is "looking for people (operating CFL teams) who can write cheques" but Moon knew that a team could happen if as little as "4000 people bought 4 season's tickets".

"The premise of the concept" states Moon "is that the people from Peterborough and Kingston would meet half way and that's Tweed", but he's not sure if people would be willing to meet half way. "We in North America in the 20th century, are lacking spirit, particularly in Canada". In fact, he states "I don't see a genuine happiness to be a Canadian, here."

Moon's frustration continued with Canadian business. His cell phone number, from Bell Canada operators, was never available for ticket inquiries. "Why would someone want to do business in Canada?" he states.

More Able Than Disabled

By Barbara Bruce-Pealow

Take a Breather from Asthma

Imagine what it would be like to try to breathe with a 300-lb. gorilla sitting on your chest. That'll give you an idea of the panic and helplessness an asthmatic experiences during an attack. If you have asthma yourself, you know just what we mean.

Fortunately, asthma isn't always that bad. Some days you just wheeze - your airways whistle and rattle as you breathe ever so cautiously. You cough, not a healthy, productive cough but a dry, nagging cough.

What do we do about it? Exercise seems to be entirely out of the question. Often, it's not the exercise that triggers asthma, but fast breathing of cold air.

Cold air irritates sensitive airways. If you breathe through your nose, instead of your mouth, the air will be warmed, and you may not react.

This is what we did on advice from a good friend who has been doing yoga for four years.

By learning to breathe correctly, asthmatics can ward off wheezing, chest tightness and shortness of breath. This exercise is practiced lying down, adding or sitting, and should be done daily.

Think of your chest and stomach as a container for air. Breathe in through your nose, slowly filling the bottom of the container first. Continue until the stomach feels inflated, like a balloon. If you place your hand on the spot just above your navel, you can feel your stomach rise and fall with each breath.

Exhale slowly through your mouth. The "container" should feel completely empty and your stomach should feel flat before you inhale again.

Repeat. Inhale and exhale eight to 10 times.

Barbara's notes: Thanks for the contribution from someone who prefers to remain anonymous. Before trying the exercise, check with your doctor.

New Strategies

Dr. Ian Turnbull of Vancouver briefed us with the very latest strategies to deal with Parkinson's, in particular, the tremor. He told us that in Parkinson's, the major activity in our brain gets speeded up and becomes excessively active. He drew an analogy with the city of Vancouver if the traffic is going too fast, we set up a control system to slow it down.

It's the same with Parkinson's. We now have a device which can balance the brain's motor activity. It doesn't treat the slowness, but it does treat the dreaded tremor and dyskinesia.

In 1992, the miraculous breakthrough occurred. In Sweden, dedicated researchers had pioneered this strategy. Involved is a two and a half hour operation. A tremendous tremor improvement happened. This can vary with the patient. Patients are elated to even have their tremor moderately controlled. Posture, balance and walking are also seen to improve. Dyskinesia in some people, is very severe, right from the first dose of dopamine. By the way, dyskinesia is the medical term for involuntary movements, squirming motions.

Like any surgery, there is a five percent risk. In this case, an electrode is implanted at the vital spot in the brain, controlling motor activity. Wires are threaded through the anatomy of the chest, where a device like a pacemaker is inserted.

When a tremor surfaces, a push of a button can turn it off. A miracle, yes! People are flocking to have this done.

Next week, Parkinson patient, Peter Kingston and Bill Harshaw.

A Scottish Origin

Shortbread has its origin in Scotland where it was an integral part of the traditional Christmas and Hogmanay (also known as New Year's Eve) meals. The classic large round shortbread biscuit is derived from the ancient Yule Bannock, a Christmas cake, which was notched around the edges to signify the sun's ray.

The home economists at Best Foods Canada have developed the following scrumptious shortbread recipes. They have been triple-tested to ensure a perfect result!

Traditional Shortbread

- 1/2 cup corn starch
  - 1/2 cup icing sugar
  - 1 cup all purpose flour
  - 3/4 cup butter, softened
- Sift together corn starch, icing sugar and flour. With large spoon, thoroughly blend in butter. Work with hands until soft, smooth dough forms. If necessary, refrigerate one hour or until easy to handle. Shape into 1-inch balls. Place about 1-1/2 inches apart on ungreased cookie sheet; flatten with lightly floured fork. Or roll dough to 1/4-inch thickness; cut into shapes with cookie cutters. Decorate with candied cherries, coloured sprinkles or nuts, if desired. Bake in a 300 degree oven for 15 to 20 minutes or until edges are lightly browned. Remove and cool completely on wire rack. Store in tightly covered container. Makes about 2 dozen cookies.

Scottish Shortbread Round

Prepare dough as above. Roll or pat into a 7 to 8 inch round on an ungreased baking sheet. Mark into 8 or 12 pie shaped wedges with a sharp knife. Prick top with fork and press fork around edge. Bake at 300 degrees for about 40 to 45 minutes, or until edges are lightly browned. Make one round.

Orange or Lemon Shortbread: Add 1 tablespoon grated orange or lemon rind to flour mixture.

time for you

Before that, (and indeed, in many remote areas of the province today) snowmobiling was a pioneering adventure of cross-country riding and backwoods pathfinding. It appealed mainly to hard-core enthusiasts prepared to handle the breakdowns caused by extreme use and to pay for the damage inflicted by hidden rocks and stumps. This frontier riding style discouraged wide-spread mainstream participation and helped give snowmobiling an underserved wild and negative reputation. Its remaining proponents are among the last hold-outs for buying Trail Use Permits, arguing that "We've never paid to ride before, so why should we start now?"

For starters, because since 1966, when the OFSC was founded by 10 clubs in Midland, Ontario, organized snowmobiling has made a dramatic difference on the snow. It has assembled, developed and maintained the world class trail system we now enjoy, and in many cases, take for granted. But organization costs money.
Heavy industrial groomers and drags at $100,000 a piece and up. Fuel and oil. Operator's wages. Insurance. Repairs and maintenance. Trail preparation including bull dozing, grading, brushing and cleaning and fencing, and the cost of related equipment such as ATV's, chain saws and bush hogs. Bridges at $30,000 to $100,000 or more each. Loads of fill, grass seed and gravel. Hundreds of thousands of trail numbers, destination markers and traffic warning signs.

Together, these are the crucial components that have put our bush-whacking days behind us.

Are there other reasons to buy a Trail Use Permit?
Maybe because it's such a small price to pay for groomed trails - less than 1% of the cost of most performance sleds. Perhaps it's to protect your ability to continue to ride anywhere, anytime. You could buy to show your appreciation for all the hard work others put in so you can snowmobile to your heart's content. Perhaps you're willing to pay for safer, more comfortable destination touring. Or maybe you just want to pay your fair share. Whatever the case, if you intend to ride groomed trails for any reason or any length of time this winter, buying a Trail Use Permit from your local club is the right thing to do.

Until next time, happy trails and remember

Rylstone WI members enjoy busy schedule

By Dorothy Thomson

During the last while the Rylstone Women's Institute has been busy doing crafts, catering, attending meetings, visiting and hosting card parties.

At the November meeting, crafts were made to donate to the Big Brothers and Big Sisters Christmas store in Madoc. Conveyor was Jean Tilney. Some of the items crafted included aprons, Christmas decorations, knitted toques, coast-ers and wreaths.

The Hoard's Station Sales
Barn was catered to Nov.
19th. Sale dates for 1997 are May 6th and Dec. 2nd.

Card parties are held the third Thursday of the month but none will be held in December.

The Trent Valley area convention Oct. 17 in Brighton was attended by several members as well as the Hoard's Basket Tea, hospital auxiliary tea and card parties hosted by other Women's Institutes for the FWIO headquarters fund.

Past-president Violet Dunk and her husband Austin celebrated their golden anniversary in September.
Jeanette Sweet and Dorothy Thomson called on WI member, Clara Anderson, who has been ailing.

Donations were sent to Wanda Burnside for 4H plaques, the hospital auxiliary, Salvation Army, Christian Food Bank in Stirling and Community Care.

Cards were sent to our twin Quinte WI in Alberta; peacekeepers and others who were ill.

The Centennial FWIO will be held June 17 in Hamilton.

Bantam Hornets edged in Hastings tourney final

Shortstaffed squad comes up with strong final match

Hastings - Norwood's Home Hardware Hornets were edged 5-3 by Warkworth in the "A" final of the Hastings Minor Sports Bantam tourney Nov. 30.

The Hornets advanced to the final with a thrilling 5-4 overtime win over the host Wolverines.

Warkworth 5, Norwood 3 (Derek Sanders is MVP)

Warkworth took a 1-0 lead into the second period on a goal by Jamie McComb but Norwood erased the shoutout in the second on a goal by Greg Ross, with Kim Kennelly setting up the marker.

Warkworth's Jeff Petty fired in another second period goal then added three more in the third with McComb, Petty and Josh Pratt doing the damage.

Norwood's third period goal scorers were Ross, from Mark Rumbles and Derek Sanders, and Jason Begg, with Jeremy Heffernan and Sanders helping out.

Norwood was minus three of its top scorers for this match -- Kyle McDonald, Rob Sedgwick and Wes Oliver -- and still managed a close game. Earning MVP honours for the Hornets was Derek Sanders.

Hornets 5, Wolverines 4

Norwood rallied from a 4-1 deficit to push this game into overtime before pulling off the win on a Wes Oliver goal.

Giving Hastings a solid lead were Steve Griffiths, who fired in a pair of goals, and Bryce Rosborough and Jeff Langford.

Oliver scored two regulation goals with Chris VanWill and Jason Begg adding singles.

Hornets assists went to Begg, Jesse Wynne and Jeremy Heffernan.

Hornets' buzz: The team got one of its strongest efforts of the season dropping Cobourg 6-1 in the tourney opener. Rob Sedgwick and Wes Oliver each scored twice with singles going to Begg and Wynne. Begg and Sedgwick added two assists with single helpers going to Jeremy Heffernan, Kyle McDonald, Wynne, Wes Oliver and Jamie Coad.

Cross country stars: The Norwood District Public School running Wolves made a tremendous impression at the PCBE cross country championships at King George Public School. With 68 Wolves on the prowl on Armour Hill, the school, for the second straight year, had the largest contingent in the competition which featured 100 runners in each age group. The top three finishers in each race earned medals and Norwood's own Josiah Oliver had a brilliant silver medal finish in the 1200 metre race for eight-year-old boys. The eight & nine-year-olds ran 1200 metres, the ten and 11-year-olds raced over a 1500 metre course and the 12 and over competitors tested their skills over 2000 metres. In the photo are the top Wolves finishers including Nicole Crawford, 17th, eight-year-old girls; Josiah Oliver, Tyler Brewer, 21st, eight-year-old boys; Tegan Alston, 12th, eight-year-old girls; Jeff Clark, 22nd, nine-year-old boys; Danielle Piche, 10th, ten-year-old girls; Rory Stanley, 18th, ten-year-old boys; Stephanie Hunt, 11-year-old girls; Adam Crawford, 33rd, 11-year-old boys; Roseanne McDonald, 12th, 12-year-old girls; Mary Beth Oliver, 13th, 12-year-old girls; Jared Carmichael, 21st, 12-year-old boys and Richard Hogue, 50th, 13-year-old boys. The CHSS junior boys volleyball team recently captured the COSSA title, something a Centre Hastings hasn't done in 16 years. The team members are: Mark Kehoe, Cecil Thompson, Ryan Treanor, Adam Woolfrey, Matt Dunham, Davyn Woods, Rob Scruton, Mike Leaver, Jesse Cassidy, Troy Abreau, Justin McArthur, Jason Brooks, Coaches Nancy Popovich, Nicole Booth (OAC student).

CHSS junior boys volleyball team capture COSSA title

The Centre Hastings Secondary School (CHSS) junior boys volleyball team recently captured the COSSA title, a feat not equalled in 16 years.

The Centurions defeated North Addington Education Centre two sets to nothing (15-9, 15-11) in the final.

In the semi-final, CHSS beat PCVS two sets to nothing.

While in pool play, the Centurions split sets with North Addington and Cobourg East and took two sets from St. Peters in their third match.

Through the last three weeks of training the team focused as a team, Coach Nancy Popovich said.

"We knew we had the potential to be successful if we could achieve this goal of working together as one unit," she added. Popovich inherited the junior boys team from Don Goodfellow, who coached the boys last year. Goodfellow is participating in a teaching exchange in England this year, and had to hand his team over to Popovich.

Prior to COSSA, the junior boys placed fourth in the Bay of Quinte finals to earn a berth at COSSA. CHSS lost two straight sets to North Addington in the semi-finals. The Bay of Quinte finals were hosted by CHSS.

After Bay of Quinte League play, CHSS was in second place behind North Addington, and ahead of Centennial and St. Paul's, who finished third and fourth respectively.

During the season the team played in three tournaments. The first was its own tournament held in September. CHSS took first place, defeating Carleton Place East two sets to one in the final.

In the St. Paul's tournament, CHSS lost to the Courtice Cougars two sets to one in the semi-finals.

Then in the East Northumberland S.S. Tournament the junior boys were semi-finalists.

Community assistance aids police in drug bust

by Jeff Wilson

Information supplied by members of Marmora's Mobile Watch and Community Policing Committee has led to numerous drug related charges in the area. Early last Tuesday morning an Ontario Provincial Police undercover investigation, code named Deerhunter concluded with an execution of search and arrest warrants. The items seized included: marijuana, hash oil, heroin, knives, cellular phones and other drug paraphernalia.

In June 1996 Project Deerhunter was initiated as a result of information supplied by members of the Marmora community. This information helped investigators to focus on street and mid-level drug trafficking in communities of Marmora, Havelock, Madoc and the Quinte area. Undercover officers were also called in to assist Belleville Police Service with a drug trafficking investigation at Tyes Tavern.

A press conference was held at the Marmora Village municipal hall to announce the success of the operation. On hand were licing Committee. "We met with the community and they voiced their concerns about illegal activity. As a result of information we received we were able to get Deerhunter up and running," Deering said.

Madoc Public Library News

Non-residents to pay higher rates in face of financial restraint

Due to financial restraints and slashed budgets, the Madoc Public Library has had to increase its non-resident fees to $10 per individual or $25 per family. This will apply to persons living in Rawdon Township, Tudor Township, Hungerford and Marmora Townships. However, because Madoc Public Library has a reciprocal borrowing policy with Stirling and Marmora Libraries, people living in Rawdon, who have a Stirling Library card, or people in Marmora and Lake Township, who have a Marmora Library card may borrow material from Madoc Public Library at no charge provided they bring their Library card from that existing Library.

Because of finances, also, the Madoc Public Library has to be more accountable to municipal councils by keeping more specific statistics. To accomplish this, new Library cards will be issued to patrons starting Jan. 1, 1997 and they will be renewed yearly. To keep proper records it is imperative that patrons show their Library card each time they borrow material from the Library.

On a happier note our story/activity hour will be on Dec. 21 this month. There will be Christmas stories galore! Come and tell us a story and have it illustrated by artist James Smith! The children had a wonderful time last year when Jim came, so be sure not to miss it this year!

Some new books at the Madoc Public Library are: "Silent Honor" by Danielle Steel, "To the Hilt" by Dick Francis, "The Unconscious Civilization" by John Ralston Saul, "Laws of Our Fathers" by Scott Turow, "Tales from Watership Down" by Richard Adams.

If we don't see you at the Library, Laurie Coe and Susan Smith would like to wish everyone a Merry Christmas!

Local MPP in favor of fewer provincial ridings

by Jeff Wilson

A local MPP has said the provincial government must lead by example and the result of this has been the passage of a bill to reduce the number of provincial members by 27.

Hastings-Peterborough MPP Harry Danford said the provincial government had to look within as well, after asking municipalities to amalgamate.

Bill 81, the Fewer Politicians Act, was passed into law late, a week ago last Wednesday night, at Queen's Park by a vote of 59-28. Under the Bill the provincial boundaries will mirror the 103 new federal ridings, with each Ontario MPP serving about 100,000 people. The Bill reduces the number of MPPs from 130 to 103, in time for the next provincial election, expected in 1999.

The reduction of MPPs was promised by Premier Mike Harris during the last election campaign, so Danford said it was no surprise when the Bill was introduced and passed. Danford added that the reduction of MPPs will save the taxpayers $11 million. Under the new boundaries, the Hastings-Peterborough riding will be swallowed up by three larger ridings, with the Hastings section going into Hastings-Frontenac-Lennox and Addington riding and the Peterborough section being split into two different ridings in the area. The Hastings-Frontenac-Lennox and Addington will contain less geographical area than the present Hastings-Peterborough riding, Danford said.

On the subject of less rural representation in provincial parliament, Danford said the reduction of ridings will effect both rural and urban areas. He also said that even though there will be less members from rural Continued on page 2 areas their voice will not be substantially less. When the bill was first discussed Danford said he had his reservations from the rural representation aspect, because of the large geographic area that will have to be covered, but feels that overall the Bill is beneficial.

On the issue of running against a fellow party member in an amalgamated riding, Danford said that issue would have to be dealt with at the time of a nomination meeting. If Danford wished to run in the riding he resides (Hastings-Frontenac-Lennox and Addington), he would face off against fellow Conservative MPP Bill Vankoughnet, who currently represents the Lennox and Addington riding, if he decided to run as well. Danford said he had no problems representing the riding at this time, and closer to the election he would consider running for the nomination.

As for charges by opposition MPPs that the Bill is a ploy by the Conservatives to make sure they are re-elected in the next election, Danford said this "simply isn't true".

With the riding, Danford said he has received "virtually no comments" on the bill in favor or against.

Under the Bill, Eastern Ontario will lose six seats, while Metro Toronto will lose eight, Western Ontario six and the Niagara Region two.

St. Bartholomew's Anglican Church in Bannockburn held a Cafe Night last Monday evening in the church hall. Those attending were treated to some delicious desserts, along with tea and coffee. The evening's entertainment included music from Ben Thompson (left) and story readings and singing from the Rainbow Club (above).

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor:

It has come to the attention of the Madoc Public School Council that directives coming from the Ministry of Education for the 1997-98 school year contain reference only to 12 years of schooling (Grades 1 - 12 incl.) No mention is made of Senior Kindergarten as an integral part of the projected school programme, although the Ministry has long promised a Senior Kindergarten common curriculum. Our concern is that the lack of reference to Senior Kindergarten in Ministry directives suggest strongly that the present Senior Kindergarten programme will disappear from our elementary school system.

We protest strongly against any such move on the part of the Ministry for the following reasons:

1) The Royal Commission on Learning report of Jan. 30, 1995 stressed the value of kindergarten for all children in Ontario.

a) The result of their substantial research suggested that children would benefit from starting school at age three instead of age four. The thrust here is to add to the kindergarten experience rather than subtract from it, as the ministry has already done by restructuring grants so that local boards have had to cut Junior Kindergarten for financial reasons only. This is in direct contradiction of the Commission's findings.

b) Further the report's research states that the first four years of a child's life are a critical learning period. After age five refinement of skills acquired in the first four years takes place. From the commission's point of view this research defined a critical need for a continuation of Junior Kindergarten and Senior Kindergarten for our children in Ontario.

2) The Ministry seems driven by immediate financial consideration rather than a concern for future employment opportunities and the students' ability to become contributing citizens of the society.

a) The Royal Commission found that for every $1 spent on education, the province can expect a return of $10.

b) A promise of our government was that no budget recommendation in the Ministry of Education would affect the delivery of education in the classroom. The Ministry's actions so far would seem a complete denial of this position.

3) The Ministry stresses a desire that all children in Ontario start with a level playing field, but your actions would indicate the opposite.

a) As the Ministry of Community and Social Services is aware, an increasingly high proportion of children are being raised in single parent families. Such children, for the most part, are already disadvantaged from an early age. To deny them the opportunity of early learning programmes is to compound the difficulties of their situation and no doubt will add them to the Social Services budget in the future.

In summary, the aim of our education system, as endorsed by the Ministry and supported by us, is to maximize schooling for all children in the province. For this reason we urge the Ministry to retain Senior Kindergarten in our elementary school system and to develop a common curriculum for this level.

We are expressing these concerns to our Minister of Education, our local MP and MPP, and the chairman of the Hastings County Board of Education. We urge you to write to voice your concerns to:

Address - Mr. John Snobelen, and Training,

What are your hands telling your horse?

I would like to start this week by thanking all those people who saddled up and hit the streets with us in the Stirling and Marmora Santa Claus Parades.

It looks like the term "winter wimps" might have been a little harsh after all (This was suggested to me by someone at a farm I visited last week). I am sure they all saw the smiles and laughter I was talking about, and felt the effort was more than worth it.

Now, I'm at the point where you are on your horse for the first time and perhaps watching life pass before your eyes. Have you noticed how everything seems to happen in slow motion when your body realizes it is going to experience a great deal of pain in a few seconds?

It's like it's trying to postpone the inevitable. Not to fear, I am, hopefully, going to explain a few things to you in an attempt to build your confidence, and thus, keep your horse quiet on that first ride.

You must understand that when anyone, including yourself, mounts a horse, you are being judged, read and assessed. You probably already knew this. Therefore, when you get on your horse, one of two things is going to happen.

If, during your training schedule, you were able to instill a great deal of self esteem in your horse, he is probably feeling pretty confident now.

On the other hand, some horses, no matter what you do, will always approach new ideas and situations with some apprehension.

Confident horse: When you get on, you had better be feeling the same way. If you mount and have any form of uncertainty in your body, this will affect your breathing. Most people tend to hold their breath in stressful situations.

Next, your hands will be unsure of themselves, and, indirectly, they are attached to your horse's mouth. This slight "quiver" or lack of control will be your horse's cue to have a lot of fun with you.

Someone or some "horse" is going to take control within the first 30 seconds. You will do well to remember that. You will also do well to remember it had better be you!

Timid/shy horse: When you get on, if you are not feeling like you have the world by the tail, again, this will be read through your hands and body.

The difference here is if your horse trusts you, but you are afraid, he will probably feel something must be wrong if you are upset by it.

Now, he begins to react to the stressful situation by prancing, maybe, or getting his body in the "flight" position. Now, you are really scared.

Who knows what this horse will do? So you tense up some more, forget to breathe or relax your body, and prepare yourself for the ride of your life.

The extra tension in your body, has just confirmed your horse's worst fear. Something is definitely wrong and he now reacts to the situation that you are both afraid of -- a vicious circle with no gate to let you out.

I think I have proven that you had better feel good about yourself, your horse and the moment before pretending any further.

I like to explain the answer to people like this:

First, what are you afraid of? It can't be falling off, because if it was, you wouldn't be riding in the first place. It is common knowledge if you ride, you are going to fall off at some point.

It can't be that you are afraid of your horse. If you have followed my program, you have just spent endless hours/days/weeks with this horse, making him your best friend.

Perhaps you are afraid he won't stop. Hopefully, you are in the enclosed area I told you to mount in for the first time, and your horse can only run so fast for so long. Consider it a freeride.

Is it that he may buck? Tie his head as explained in my previous article.

Anything left? I don't think so. So get with the feeling of enjoyment and excitement. You are about to embark on the first ride of hopefully thousands more to come with your best friend.

However, if you do feel like you might like to be scared up then, this is the guaranteed solution to ending your fear. Don't be scared. Get ticked off instead. Fear leads to fear, and anger usually lets your horse know you mean business and he had better get to it. Only you and I will know the truth, and that's just fine!

See you next week

Hornets sting Wings

Warsaw - The Norwood Century Roofing peewee Hornets taught a serious lesson to the Warsaw Red Wings this week.

A strong first period from both teams left the board empty until well into the second period. B.J. Gontier finally broke loose to receive a perfect pass from Brandon Webb who zinged a tremendous wrist shot into the net.

Kyle Patterson then found himself in position to score on a pass from Kyle Townsend late in the second to make it 2-0.

Warsaw came back to make it 2-1 with a goal early in the third period but Townsend then took one in for a goal after some hardwork from linemates Graham Miller and Gontier.

Hard-hitting J.J. Searle, came up with one for the night on an end-to-end rush with Cody Shaw and Bryan Scott. A last second rush by Victor McHady for the Hornets was high over the net leaving the score at 4-1.

The two teams tangle again Friday night this time in Norwood.

Cobourg Road Centre filled with fine sounds of Christmas season

Victor Morrow presides over 141st annual event

By Kathaleen Oliver
(Special to The Star)

Hastings - Adults and children joined together to present the 141st Christmas program in the Cobourg Road Community (formerly S.S. No. 9 Percy) on Saturday, Dec. 7.

Victor Morrow was chairman for the evening and Jacqueline Beamish accompanied the various numbers. Victor led in carol singing to begin a wonderful night of festive entertainment.

The opening recitation was by Heather Orr followed by these excellent performances: a piano solo by Maggie Burgess, a solo by Carley Savery, "Come On, Ring Those Bells," Victoria Moffat played two toe-tapping violin solos; Jacqueline Gibson's recitation was entitled "Bethlehem," Travis Gibson's song "I Ain't Gettin' Nothin' For Christmas;" Andrew Orr sang "Welcome;" Carla Hynes sang "Drummer Boy;" Jennifer, Kimberly Amanda and Samantha Cormier also performed; Mel Lounds performed both a reading and harmonica solo; Victor, Victoria and Stanley Morrow sang "These Things Will Never Grow Old;" Elmer Harper played a piano solo; Jacqueline Beamish and Mike Nitsch, accompanied by Mark Burgess on guitar, performed a humorous duet; Maggie Burgess also sang; "The Great Parking Space Race," was acted out by Mary Gibson and Marion Hartford; Sam Beamish gave the audience a violin solo; Ralph Schroeder performed on the harmonica; Dawn Barry performed the solo "Christmas is For Kids;" Maurice Bonneau played a violin solo; Des Donnelly played the accordion; Steve Strayko played the violin and "Away In The Manger" was performed by all the children present who gathered on stage along with storyteller Mike Nitsch.

Santa, lured by the wonderful sounds emanating from the Centre, arrived to hand out bags of candy. Refreshments were served by the committee in charge of arranging such a delightful Christmas festival.

Fun, food & fellowship in abundance at Norwood church gatherings

UCW, 50/50 Club host annual seasonal gatherings

By Dan Pilcher
(Special to The Register)

Norwood - There was lots of activity at Norwood United Church Dec. 3.

Fun, food and fellowship were served up a couple of times, starting at noon when the United Church Women (UCW) held their annual pot luck luncheon meeting and in the evening when the 50/50 Club held its lively Christmas Party.

The UCW usually meet with two groups -- the evening unit and the afternoon unit. But on the first Tuesday in December they meet together and there is a pot luck lunch followed by a program and a short business meeting.

And pot luck with that many ladies is better than a buffet at the best restaurant around. And traditionally, the ladies invite the men of the church to this event.

Lunch was great with many super hot dishes, salads and lots of desserts. And after the meal was cleared away, Marilyn Begg led a pleasant hour of fellowship with carols and games. Why, she even had the guys and gals playing the UCW version of "Wheel of Fortune." There were two teams competing, with Marilyn running the game. Barb Sherwin assisting and wild horses will never get me to tell you who played Vanna White.

All in all, it was a fun afternoon.

Some of the guests stayed in the kitchen for clean-up while the ladies held a very short business meeting. A strange remark from the kitchen -- a man's voice -- saying, "What's this?"

Another voice answered, "It's a tea towel."

And gosh before you knew it the dishes were done!

The UCW has had this December meeting for several years now and lots of people are looking forward to next year already.

In the evening the church was busy again as the 50/50 Club held their Christmas Party. About 40 people, including several guests, were present; and a group of members led by Phyllis and Dan Pilcher led a program of carols and entertainment -- with a very funny skit by Charles and Doreen Strong. There were also reading and poems, some comical and some reminding us about the Christian meaning of Christmas.

All in all, it was a very entertaining program and, of course, this too was followed by refreshments. The ladies served up a delicious lunch which was appreciated by all present.

A short business meeting followed which included the final touches to the elections of officers for next year. Dan and Phyllis are co-presidents. Marilyn Begg and Ray Begg are treasurers; Doreen and Charles Strong are vice presidents and Evelyn Davidson is secretary.

The 50/50 Club is now in its 47th year of operation. Its main function being an evening once a month of Christian fellowship with music, food and fun. New members are always welcome -- and most certainly the Club welcomes singles as well as couples.

This was a good party. We look forward to welcoming YOU at our next one in January.

A Christmas wave: One way to calm down those nerves during a school Christmas concert is search out the audience for some familiar faces and give them a pre-song wave. Well, that's exactly what this St. Paul's School kindergarten singer did before her class performed Thursday evening in Norwood. It was a fine night of music, celebration and festive fellowship. ### Some heartening Parkinson cases

Peter Kingston, who was diagnosed with Parkinson's at 35, endured severe dyskinesia for years. He needed two canes to walk. Now he's 53 and runs his own business. After brain surgery, Peter has 95 per cent improvement. Not everyone does that well but those who even have a 35 per cent improvement feel the surgery was worth it.

Four "F" words are associated with this surgery afterwards. Frustration and fear. How long will the plus last? It's too soon to tell. Fat and fast. Patients tend to gain weight but it's so much easier to get to the fridge. It takes about three months for total benefits to surface and to have the monitor adjusted to the optimism for the individual. There is a sense of release, but remember, Parkinson is still there. Take it easy; avoid fatigue.

Pallidotomy itself, the original surgery has now become so routine it's almost like removing tonsils. Patients come in the morning of the surgery; they go home the next day.

Bill Harshaw has had pallidotomy on one side and the electrode implant on the other side of his brain. Pallidotomy is not reversible. The deep brain electrode implant strategy is being done most often. Now our research surgeons can do implants at the target place, on both sides of the brain.

This surgery is expensive. Only those who are in severe distress are being treated. Patients close to Toronto get first call because it takes up to three months to have the computer in the pacemaker regulated so they must return frequently.

What tremendous breakthroughs have happened in the last two to three years. Now there is even a network of patients who have had either pallidotomy and/or electrode implants. What a morale-boosting breakthrough again!

For the future, it looks as though simulators (electrode implants) are the way to go but our researchers are still very much on the job. A brand new strategy is on the horizon.

The answer to the Parkinson puzzle lies in research. So more money for research is needed. A scrutiny of the financial statements show that we are doing just that - increasing our funding. This in turn gets us public attention and support as well.

Strategies for the media are planned. A media management kit is in the offing.

A proposal to set aside April 11th, 1997, as World Parkinson Day is being met with approval.

Why April 11th? It was the birthday of Dr. James Parkinson who first described the cluster of symptoms now known as Parkinson Syndrome - not disease. This terminology is also being discarded along with our fear of Parkinson. Why? Because with all the breakthrough we are encouraged that, like Martin Luther King, "we'll be free at last."

Barbara's note: Many thanks to Edith Symonds for the information and her insight on Parkinson Syndrome. The above and other articles appearing in the past few weeks focused on the Canadian Parkinson Foundation's general meeting in Vancouver, Friday, October 18, 1996. We are indebted to Edith for her submissions.

Spread joy with a toast around the punch bowl:

Wassail Punch

- 1 gallon apple cider
- 2 teaspoons allspice (whole)
- 2 teaspoons clove (whole)
- 2 three-inch cinnamon sticks

2/3 cup sugar
Orange slices studded with cloves

Heat cider, allspice, cloves, cinnamon and sugar to boiling. Reduce heat. Cover and simmer 20 minutes. Strain punch and pour into heatproof punch bowl. Float orange slices into bowl. Makes 32 1/2 cup servings.

Chow, see you January 7th, 1997.

Best wishes for a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year from the Pealows... myself, husband Larry, and the rest of the family.

REINHART: In memory of our dear mother, grandmother and great grandmother who passed away December 17, 1995.
Sad are the hearts that loved you.
Silent the tears that fall.
Living our lives without you,
is the hardest part of all.
You did so many things for us.
Your heart was kind and true.
And when we needed someone
We could always count on you.
Lovingly remembered by Elene
Reinhart and family. (50-301)

MORRISON: CARRIE: Who passed away December 20, 1993.
We do not need a specialty to bring you to our minds.
Myrtle & Vernon (50-301)

DAVIS: ROBERTA: In loving memory of Mother who passed away December 11, 1995.
Though time has passed so fast
And help us to forget.
But time has only proved
How much we miss you yet.
Myrtle, Harry & families (50-301)
DAVIS: ROBERTA: In loving memory of a dear wife, who passed away December 11, 1995.
Although we smile & make no fun,
No one misses her more than us.
And when old times we all recall That's when we miss her most of all.
Husband Roy and children (50-301)

MAYNES: In memory of Robert
E. Maynes, who passed away
December 14, 1994.
Down the path of memories,
I gently tread today.
For my loving thoughts are with you.
As life goes on its way,
I often talk about you
With love and sad regret.
For I, who loved you dearly,
Never will forget.
The many things you did for me,
In your kind and loving way,
You gave me years of happiness.
No one can take away

Novice Hornets blank Dukes

Norwood - Norwood's Begg Fuels novice Hornets blanked the Douru Dukes with Jeff Quinlan holding down the shutout for the home side.

Most of the scoring occurred in the first eight minutes of action with goals coming at one a minute starting with Kevin Gourley, from Ian Kennelly and Ray Bradley; Bradley, from Kennelly and Gourley and Tyler Brewer, from Sawyer Gerow.

Brewer then scored one unassisted and a second by Bradley from Kennelly and Gourley ended the first period.

The Dukes slowed down Norwood's forwards in the second making the game a much tighter affair. Gourley found the mark again at the 7:40 mark to make it 6-0.

Third period play was all defence with Quinlan making three outstanding saves to ice the shutout.

The Hornets host the Marmora Stars Friday night at 6 pm.

Chad up for the tying goal before the close of the second. Third period play saw four goals in two favor of the visitors. Brennan Vezina and Chad McLean posted the third period Wildcat goals with assists from Darby Smith and Jonathan McConnell.

Tweed dominated our Pee wee A Wildcats with a 6-0 shut-out in the second game of the evening.

Our Pee wee A's were back in true form on Dec. 13 with an 8-0 blow-out over Norwood. Jason Wilson and Mike McCann posted a pair of goals apiece, while T.J. Tomlinson, Rob Reynolds, Tyler Gordon and Justin Cassidy popped in singles.

Tyler Gordon, Thomas Nickle, T.J. Tomlinson and Jason Wilson posted an assist each with Mike McCann picking up a pair.

Our Atom B Wildcats hosted Stirling C's on Dec. 10 in exhibition action. The home team dominated first period play with three goals to the visitor's one. David McKenzie passed to Brian Coe for the first Madoc marker. Adam Alexander scored the second Madoc goal, assisted by Brian Coe and Dillon Carman, while the third Wildcat marker was an awesome unassisted shot by Mike Prestin. Stirling snuck one more by netminder Billy Blackburn in the second, but the host B's held opposition scoreless through the third, to take the match 3-2.

Friday the 13th proved to be very lucky for our Wildcats. While the Pee wee A's were trouncing Norwood on the road, our Atom A's hosted the Marmora Stars. Mike Stein lit up the score board for the home team midway through first period action, with an assist from Brian Coe. Early in the second, Shawn Trotter raised the score to 2-0 with assists from Brandon Dacuk and Logan Cassidy. The visitors challenged the Wildcats lead with a goal 42 seconds into the third, but our A's roared back with a second goal scored by Mike Stein on a pass from Tanner Alford. The Stars narrowed the gap two minutes later with their second goal and popped in the tying goal just past the half way point of the third. A power play in the last minute and a half of the game, gave our Wildcats room to pop in the winner by Brad Robinson with an assist from Greg Smith.

We're changing publication dates.

The next edition of this newspaper will be coming to your home on Saturday, January 4th instead of Tuesday.

The newspaper will be printed Friday and distributed overnight for delivery before noon on Saturday.

We have hired a distribution firm to deliver door-to-door in towns, villages, and to all rural routes as well.

This will ensure that we maintain 100% household delivery as before.

Although the publication date is changed, the management promises to maintain the high calibre of news coverage for our readers and to continue to offer our advertisers an effective vehicle to deliver their message.

Thanks for your continued support and please watch for us each and every Saturday.

Village Council seat to remain vacant

by Jeff Wilson

Madoc Village Council has decided to follow the lead of two other area councils, and not fill a vacant seat on council, until the next municipal election next year.

Council made the decision following the discussion of a memo provided by Clerk-Treasurer Doug Parks. Both the Huntingdon Township and Tweed Village recently had council seats become vacant with the resignation of Councilor Dorothy Ellis and the passing of Reeve Dr. Gib Allen. Both councils decided not to fill the positions for the remainder of the term. Stirling Village had a similar vacancy occur earlier this year, and council appointed a new member to fill the seat.

The memo stated that the procedures under the Municipal Act, under Section 43, it states "where the seat of a member of a council becomes vacant under section 39, the council shall forthwith declare the seat to be vacant. Then in Section 45 (1) it states "...the council at a meeting called for that purpose shall appoint a person who has consented to accept the office..." Parks went on to explain to council that these two sections seem to contradict themselves, with one using the word "forthwith" implying immediacy, whereas the appointment of a replacement indicates that the action of filling the vacancy has to occur, without stating a time frame.

Huntingdon Township also recognized the discrepancy between the two sections and Township Clerk Bonnie Jones placed the issue before the Legal Branch of the Ministry of Municipal Affairs in Toronto. The reply from the Ministry stated that the Municipal Act in fact does not indicate a time period to replace, therefore a municipality could leave the position open by not rushing in to make the replacement, Parks said in his memo. He concluded by informing council that both Huntingdon Township and Tweed Village intend to leave their positions open through the remainder of this term of office.

Reeve Tom Deline said that council decided to leave

Waste Management Board terminates landfill site selection process

by Jeff Wilson

The Centre and South Hastings Waste Management Board passed a resolution to terminate the landfill site selection process for financial reasons, ending a 10-year search.

Board Solicitor Wayne Fairbrother explained to the board and landowners present at the meeting in Ivanhoe last Thursday afternoon that the resolution terminates the landfill selection process.

McKenzie Road landowner Bill Carr questioned whether why a future board wouldn't dust off the current landfill site selection study in a few years time. Fairbrother responded that he felt it would be "extremely difficult" for a future board to take the current study and continue on from where the current board left off.

Carr disagreed saying he would think a future board would utilize the report to reduce costs in the process of finding a landfill site.

Fairbrother stated that a future board would have to start from scratch if it decided to pursue the landfill site option, under the new guidelines of the Ministry of Environment and Energy.

The resolution contained seven recommendations that included:

- * that the board terminate and not proceed with the current landfill site selection process on the basis that the financial impacts of proceeding with the approval process and ultimately the construction of a jointly owned and operated municipal landfill site are not currently acceptable to the municipalities forming the Board.

- * that the municipalities forming a part of the waste management board continue to collect and dispose their garbage (i.e. non-recyclable, non-compostable waste) by existing means and methods.

- * that the waste management Master Plan be finalized by the board, which Master Plan shall incorporate the recommendations contained the first two recommendations above.

- * that the waste management Master Plan, once finalized by the board, be submitted to the municipalities forming the Board for approval and that upon the requisite approval being obtained the board shall be authorized to implement the Master Plan and the undertakings thereof in order to achieve the diversion targets set out in the Plan.

- * that the Recycling Board and Waste Management Board be amalgamated into one successor board and the new Board of Management Agreement be entered into a form agreed to by the parties.

- * that the sole tender received from Laidlaw Inc. in response to the tender call be refused and the Laidlaw be so advised.

- * that the Master Plan be reviewed in five years (or earlier if the Board determines that circumstances warrant) including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, a review of: waste collection and disposal methods; a review of the advisability of carrying out an investigation, study and identification of a preferred site or sites for a landfill site to be jointly used, owned and/or operated by the municipalities forming the Board; all waste diversions and new technologies.

The completion of the Master Plan will be undertaken by waste management board co-ordinator, Amy Shaughn. The final document will be a three or four page "summary" of the whole master plan, with some portions taken from recommendations supplied by consultants Proctor and Redfern. Carr requested there be no reference to the McKenzie Road candidate landfill site in the report, and asked when the summary would be completed and before the individual municipalities for approval.

"I don't want it (the report) to come back to haunt my property or others come sale time," Carr said.

Chairman Tom Deline responded the report would not contain any reference to the candidate sites and would first be approved by the executive committee of the waste management board and should be before municipal council sometime in January.

Christmas Angel Appeal

The Madoc Kiwanis Christmas Angel Appeal, a part of the Club's Toy and Food Drive, has been set up at the TD Bank, where a Christmas tree stands, with angels on the tree. On each angel there is a name and sex of a needy child. People in community are asked to take an angel and in return purchase and wrap a gift and place it under the tree. The program has been a joint effort with the Christmas tree being donated by Hidden Oaks Tree Farm at Cooper, TD Bank providing the space, and Mike and Sue Stevens of the Madoc Business Association put up the tree. The program has received great response and will return next year.

District Health Council Meeting Highlights

Linkage between the DHC and the new Community Care Access Centre.

At the request of the DHC, its Long-term Care Planning Committee has proposed that linkages between the DHC and the new Community Care Access Centre take the form of inviting the Executive Director of the CCAC or an alternative representative to be a resource member to the Long-term Care Planning Committee of the DHC.

The Community Care Access Centre will combine the current work of the Home Care Program and the (long-term care facilities) Placement Co-ordination Services under a new Board of Governors which will include a combination of community and Belleville General Hospital Board members. Advertising for CCAC members is now taking place.

DHC Reconfiguration

Because of the change in Minister of Health a short time ago, review of the recommendations with respect to DHC reconfiguration by the Minister of Health has been postponed to January 1997. Meanwhile, representatives of the Hastings/Prince Edward; Kingston, Frontenac, Lennox and Addington and Rideau Valley DHCs are meeting to discuss the merger of the three DHC's and the new organization which will be created from the merger.

Into The Future

the district. Continuing care includes palliative care, respite care, rehabilitation and chronic care services. The report also includes an estimate of future beds needed to support these roles.

The Child Who Didn't Want Anything For Christmas

In a small three-bedroom log cabin on the outside of a quaint little town lived a family of three - a son, a mother and a father. It was a merry time in the year, when even the saddest thing is turned to happiness. Adam was very sad because he had lost his favourite teddy. He wrote his letter to Santa saying he didn't want anything. Santa was surprised by this comment and told all his elves that whoever could make Adam happy would get a special present for Christmas. All the elves agreed to this and started to make wonderful presents.

There was a younger elf who destroyed everything he touched. One day he was looking into Santa's magic fire and he saw a vision of where the teddy was. It was in the attic. So while all the other elves were busy, he was making a plan of how he could sneak into the sleigh and get Adam's teddy out of the attic, put it under the tree and get back into the sleigh.

He thought and thought. He had a great idea! He could hide in the sack with the toys! The big night came and the elf followed through with his plan.

It worked!! The next morning they were all standing around the fireplace and the toy that Adam liked the best was the old teddy! The youngest elf won the present.

The Best Christmas Present Ever
One Christmas Eve morning I woke up and looked out the window and saw a thick blanket of snow. I thought to myself, "I am going G.Ting." I got dressed and went downstairs and got a nice whiff of eggs and bacon. I sat down at the table and mom set my breakfast down and sat down beside me. She said, "Ryan". I have some bad news from dad, he says that Colorado is covered in snow and he has no way of getting home for Christmas." I felt sick. "This means that dad won't be home for Christmas!" I felt like dying. Nothing is worse than to not have your own dad home for Christmas. I ran up stairs and lay in my bed, wondering if we could do anything to get him home. But it was impossible. An hour went by and I said that this was crazy. How was I going to solve anything lying in my bed? So I went downstairs to finish the rest of breakfast.

After I got washed and made my bed, I went outside to G.T. with my friend Mike. He has an awesome hill and jump. We played for a couple of hours and then had to go in for lunch. After lunch we G.T. again. His mom called Mike in for supper, so I went in too.

After supper we went to a Christmas service at the church. After the service was over we went to a friend's house and ate goodies but it wasn't as much fun without dad. After we had, had enough we went home and went to bed.

The next day was Christmas morning. I woke up and went downstairs and into the family room. There in front of me - was dad. I screamed because I was so happy he was there. That was the best Christmas present ever!!

An Early Christmas Morning

I opened my eyes and all I could hear was the ripping of presents and could tell it was near

I walked down the stairs as my eyes filled with glory

I opened my presents with my brother Cory

I could smell the aroma of a burning turkey in the oven

So I hurried to turn it off as fast as a button. I grabbed the ropes and tied the tree down. We left. We were about half way home when we saw our sisters lying face up watching the clouds float by. "Get out of the snow before you freeze!" Sabrina yelled. When we got home Sabrina and I cut off all the dead branches. The four of us dragged the tree upstairs. I sent Manda and Mary up to the attic to get the decorations. The four of us sank into the big couch, fell fast asleep got wakened up by mom, opened all our gifts and played with them all day (except when we ate) and almost all night. That was the best Christmas we all had ever had.

Letters From Junior

Dear Mom and Dad:
Hi how are you? It is fun being an elf. Right now it is Christmas Eve and Santa kind of broke his sleigh. He was test flying it and he crashed into his house. Now there is a big hole in his house. I don't think he will have it ready for 11 p.m. Well I better go.

Love, Junior
P.S. I will write back.

Dear Mom and Dad:
I don't know if Santa will have his sleigh ready for tonight. I kind of think he is going to ask us elves to help him with his sleigh since we are so good at fixing and building things. I am going to go now. I will write you back when something exciting happens.

Love, Junior

Dear Mom and Dad:
Santa did ask us elves to help him with his sleigh but something went wrong we could not get it back together. Us elves are planning a surprise for Santa. I hope it works out. I will tell you what it is in my next letter if it works out.

Love, Junior
P.S. I will write back.
P.P.S. The sweater you sent me fits good.

Dear Mom and Dad:
Me and the other elves are going to build something for Santa. We are going to build him a new red sleigh with glistening green bells on the side. I hope he likes it. Bye.

Love, Junior

Mom and Dad:
WOW! Was Santa ever surprised. Right away he hitched up the reindeer. Then he yelled out now Dasher! Now Dancer and Vixen! ON COMET. ON COMET.

pid. Blitzen. By that time it was 10:30 p.m. Santa was on his way, but he had to turn back he forgotten something. Santa stopped his sleigh he asked Tommy to run and get the bag of toys. That is how Christmas of 1996 went. Well I better go.

Later it's supper time, turkey dinner is their meal. Then arrives another night, the children sleep again, waiting for the next Christmas to come. Also thanking god for the love, happiness, and wonderful day.

Memories of Christmas

by Jean Sargent

On Dec. 10 Cooper and Remington Women's Institute had their Christmas program. Without any snow it doesn't seem like Christmas, does it?

We enjoyed ourselves any way. Jean Bailey read a Christmas story from the Friendship book.

For our roll call members told what they liked best about Christmas. Most of us still like the hustle and bustle of crowds and shopping for Christmas. The lights, decorating, putting up the tree. Some families go out at night to see the decorated and lighted homes.

The minutes were read and approved. The treasurer gave her report. A donation was made to the Belleville General Hospital to help buy a Patient Montmore System in the Emergency Department. We also made a donation to Hospice. We had a great district, two of which would include hospitals. The North Hastings District Hospital and Prince Edward County Memorial Hospital would become part of the North Hastings and Prince Edward County Community Health Corporations respectively.

The report proposes that Trenton Memorial Hospital and Belleville General Hospital become a single hospital corporation operating on two sites. The report outlines the major programs and services which would be provided by the new hospital corporation including, surgical, medical, rehabilitation, continuing care and mental health services.

The report states that by transforming the delivery of primary care and restructuring hospitals, major steps can be taken to ensure the health care system continues to be of high quality, publicly funded and accountable, universally accessible and responsive to community needs.

Copies of this report are being sent to every physician in the district as well as health care organizations.

It was Christmas Eve. I was drinking eggnog while I watched Christmas shows on TV. In an hour I had to go next door to my grandma's house for Christmas Eve. Every year, she has a Christmas Eve party. She usually has chocolate, pop, juice, and a lot of other yummy stuff.

Later I went to my grandma's house. The Christmas tree was up; all the presents were under the tree, and the fire was burning brightly.

I was looking under the tree for my present. I couldn't find it. Then I saw a tiny present. It was mine, but it was so tiny that it fit in my hand. I was all upset. My grandma asked me what was wrong.

"Nothing," I snarled, then I jumped up and went upstairs by myself. I was so angry I wanted to break something, but I didn't. Oh, I was so angry!

Then my cousin Nicky came upstairs. She said, "I know what's wrong."

"No you don't," "Yes, I do. You're made because your present is the smallest one under the tree, right?"

"Ya, so what?"
"Well, that's just being greedy."

"I know, but..."
"But, what?"

"Oh never mind, just do whatever you came up here to do."

We'd like to extend to you a Very Merry Christmas & a Happy New Year.

It was Christmas morning and I already opened my presents. I was down at my Grandma's house. I was just about to open my small present. Unhappily, I opened it. It was a charm necklace. I thanked my grandma so much. It was what I always wanted.

Now I know how true that old saying is... good things come in small packages.

The First Christmas

by Andrew Yissick
Marmora Senior School

The first Christmas started because of the birth of Jesus Christ. It all began when an angel came down from Heaven and told Mary she would have a baby very soon. At first when Mary saw the angel she was frightened, but the angel said he meant no harm.

Later the King called for a census and everyone had to go back to where they were born. Mary had to go to Bethlehem.

So Mary set off with Joseph over the hot desert on a donkey to Bethlehem. It took a very long time to get there. When they arrived, they went to an inn, but there was no inn that had any rooms left because everyone had already taken them.

There was one inn left on the outside of town, but there was no room there either, but the innkeeper saw how tired they were and he said, "There is no room here, but behind the inn there is a stable and you can stay there."

Mary said, "Thank you." Through the night Mary gave birth to the baby Jesus. They placed the baby in the manger.

That night there was a big star above the stable that led the shepherds to the stable and the wisemen came later with gifts. They brought gold, frankincense and myrrh.

That's the story of baby Jesus and the first Christmas gifts.

I met Santa
by Brian McNabb
Grade 1, Sacred Heart

Once I saw Santa flying with his reindeer. He was saying, HO HO HO. Then he suddenly landed on my roof. He went down my chimney. Santa put presents under the tree. Then he went back up through the chimney. He left tracks on my roof.

Christmas Eve
Santa was packing his sleigh. While Mrs. Claus baked cookies. The elves were working busily making toys. The reindeer were getting ready to fly off. Santa had to dress warm. We went to the first house and dropped off presents under the tree. Then we went around the world and landed back at the North Pole. Santa went for a very long nap.

The 385 Army Cadet Corp held its annual Christmas dinner on Dec. 13, 1996. This traditional gathering of cadets and their families was a success again this year, thanks to the fine home-cooking of many parents and dedicated ladies of the Parent committee. The cadets recognized their efforts by presenting them with medals of appreciation. These parent committee members were Kathy Warner, Melvina Bradshaw, Linda Crevier, Linda Beattie, Kim Watson, Cindy Minnie, Nancy Foster and Debbie Grayston.

Among the 250 in attendance, the group had many honored guests on hand. Gracing the head table was: Capt. F. Kelly, Commanding Officer and his fiancée Jean Cessinghouse; CWO C. Paraniuk and parents Sue and Ted Paraniuk; Lt. Col B. Milroy (representing the Army Cadet League and the Hastings and Prince Edward Regiment) with his wife Stella; Rev. Brian Webber and his wife Margaret; Mr. Crichton Harrop (representing the Madoc Kiwanis Club); Mr. Brian McCormick (President of Marmora Legion); Mrs. Jean Aylesworth (Vice President of Madoc Legion); Mr. and Mrs. Bob Arnold (representing the Tweed Legion); and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cummings (Chairman of the Supporting Committee) with his wife Phyllis. Among the other guests we also enjoyed the fellowship of many members of the Kiwanis Club and their families.

CHSS Librarian and Kiwanis Representative and former cadet, Mr. Crichton Harrop delivered a heartfelt speech about the return of the cadets to the Madoc Armoury.

The 385 would like to take this time to thank Mr. McCormick and the Marmora Legion for their generous donation of $1,000 to the Cadet Corps to assist in funding their training year.

Throughout the evening, all my fellow cadets waited anxiously for the announcement of our 97 skill at arms team. Although C1 Karen Wilkes and CWO Chad Paraniuk had a difficult decision to make, they managed to select 12 cadets who will represent the 385 at CFB Petawawa in the spring competition. They will be competing against 18 other corps in all levels of cadet training. The following is the 97 Skill at Arms Team: WO R. Cole; WO R. Bradshaw; Sgt. J. Dobb; Sgt. P. McTaggart; Sgt. J. Rea; Mcpl C. Andrus; Mcpl. J. Richards; Mcpl. K. Wilkes; Mcpl. B. Bradshaw; Cpl. M. Warner; Cpl. A. Locke; Cdt. A. Ferrucci. Congratulations!

Don't forget our Christmas Holiday Teen Dance

on Dec. 28 from 8 p.m. to midnight. It will be held at the Madoc Kiwanis Club. The theme of this dance is your most outrageous Christmas gift (wear it). There will be advance tickets on sale from various cadets. There will also be a bus available from Marmora and Tweed to bring the kids to the dance and home again. If you need more information call 473-1841.

Civilian Instructor Joanne Taylor, of the 385 Cadet Corps, has undertaken the momentous task of co-ordinating the 96 Cadet Food and Toy Drive. This included campaigning local schools and organizing Madoc, Marmora and Tweed. The response from the community was overwhelming and successful. The cadets have a new found appreciation for life's basics such as food and the many presents under their Christmas trees every year. Supporting and assisting the Kiwanis Club in their Annual Toy and Food drive has made up aware of just how many families are in need, and how many children will benefit from their efforts on Christmas morning.

The Corps would like to take their berets off to Mrs. Taylor and her purely selfless dedication to the cadets and the community. The group would also like to thank the members of the Kiwanis Club for their guidance and the students and teachers of the Madoc Township Public School, The Madoc Public School and Centre Hastings Secondary School. To all those who made this such a beautiful year for all, we salute you.

The 385 Cadets and staff would also like to wish you all a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

The four declared nominees are: Brent Cameron, 31, from Verona, constituency assistant to Hastings-

Peterborough MPP Harry Dantford, Kelly Hineman, 46, Reeve of Bath and 1996 Warden of Lennox and Addington County; Rev. Kevin Kay, 35, a Clovis native, serving as a Free Methodist Pastor in Belleville and Daryl Krump, 49, owner of a restaurant and catering business on Moira Lake, south of Madoc.

Be careful with winter feeding

Being so close to Christmas now, I am afraid I have come to the realization that winter is definitely here and the snow is only a "throw" away.

Feeding time isn't much fun anymore, since I can only think about getting back into the house. However, I thought I might share a thought with you about wintering your horse and feeding indoors.

A few years ago, I was talking to one of my respected "horse friends" and was telling her that I felt badly that I didn't have an expensive barn with snazzy stalls to keep my horses in. I mentioned how nice it would be to be able to feed them indoors, in cute little hay feeders, so they didn't have to bend over all the time.

Well, I'm glad I mentioned it, because Donna brought something to my attention that I am sure has saved me undetermined amounts of money over the past few years. Thanks, Donna.

First, horses were meant to eat off the ground; thus, the long neck which is just the right size for reaching and eating grass. Secondly, horses were meant to be outside; thus, the thick winter coats and intelligence to go into the trees to avoid a snow storm.

So, when we take our horses out of their environment and into cosy warm barns, are we doing it for their benefit or our own? I'm not saying there is anything wrong with putting your horse in the barn on a cold night, and some may even like it, but, keep reading and make up your own mind.

Assuming your horse knows better than you do when it is hot or cold, and assuming you have a three or three-and-a-half sided shelter available at all times, he will probably spend the majority of his time outside.

When you put his feed on the ground outside, you will notice that he takes a few bites, lifts his head, chew, and then puts his head down (or more). When he is doing this, the majority of air going through his lungs is fresh air and free from any dust particles.

When you feed your horse inside, the wind is not able to blow the dust away from your horse's nostrils; therefore, even when he comes up to chew, his lungs are still taking in some dust contents. This can, possibly, lead to heaves.

If you are feeding your horse from a convenient manger -- like I wanted to do -- he is now standing with his head directly in the hay and breathing probably 99 per cent of the dust and anything else located in the hay.

If you have found 100 per cent dust free hay, don't lose your supplier. It seems that there is always something in every bale you find from dust to mould, depending on the weather or time of day in which it was baled.

Therefore, if your horse is kept inside, and your vet bill seems to be higher than your friend down the road who only has an accessible shelter, you might want to give this a little more consideration.

I have never had the novelty of luxury of having a fancy homestead for my horses; however, they seem to like the idea of having control of their own temperature, and I enjoy the freedom of not having to worry about heaves, pneumonia, etc.

(Important note: This article is directed to only those horse owners who have healthy, physically stable animals. If you have been directed by your vet to keep your horse indoors for medical reasons, your vet's advice should always surpass my suggestions.)
Merry Christmas, Everyone.

The Best Christmas Ever!

One year on Christmas eve Kate and Ally were sleeping on the couch waiting for Santa to come.

Soon Kate fell asleep. Then Ally heard a noise. She hit Kate on the head. Kate woke up. What did you do that for, asked Kate. I heard a noise, said Ally. All of a sudden they saw black boots coming down the chimney. Soon they saw a whole body with a sack in the fireplace. It's Santa, it's Santa, shouted the twins.

Oh Santa, can we please come to the North Pole with you? Have you been good this year? asked Santa. Yes, yes, we have! O.K. I guess you can, said Santa. So they got into the sleigh and went around the rest of the world delivering presents.

When they got back to the shop the twins gasped at the sight of the shop. Then Santa sent them to a nice silky bed. Oooh this is nice said the twins.

The next day Santa said, I'd better take you home because we are busy here. So with the touch of his nose they were back by their own Christmas tree. Then they went upstairs and told their parents the whole story.

The Dream

One day a little boy named John and his sister Marg went to the park. When they got there and they just put the eyes on the snowman, Rudolph appeared and took them to Santa's workshop.

"Oh my," Santa said, "there are more houses to deliver presents to. Dasher said, 'Don't worry Santa, the elves will help you.' Then suddenly John and Mary appeared. "Wow," said John. "Wow," said Mary. "Would you like me to show you around?" asked Rudolph. "Sure," said John and Mary and off they went.

On Christmas night Santa was at the 50th house when he got stuck in the chimney. "Hold on Santa we will help you," John and Mary throw down the rope," Santa said. Then down came the rope. John and Mary pulled with all their might and got Santa out

All of a sudden John and Mary woke up. "It was just a dream," they said and went back to sleep

Santa's Workshop

One day Santa found one of his elves was sick. Santa didn't know what to do. So he went to the computer and asked it what to do. One of my elves is sick Santa said. The computer said use your back-up system. I'll Santa asked his back-up system. I'll take the elf's place in the workshop. The Elf said yes I will take his place.

He went outside to check on his reindeer if they were fed, they were not fed. Hey, somebody feed my reindeer said Santa.

So the reindeer were fed. Santa was ready to deliver the presents that night. So all the children were happy because they got the presents they wanted. Then Santa came back and he saw his elf was better

My sister said, "It is mine." Then I said, "No, it is mine." My sister said, "No, it is mine." Then I said, "No, it is mine." So my sister said, "Fine go." My sister let me have it so we stopped fighting.

What My Family And I Do At Christmas Time

I am Raylee, and I am going to tell you about my exciting Christmas. The first thing my family and I do when we wake up in the morning is we go downstairs and we open our presents that Santa Claus and our family gave us too. We have a very, very, big Christmas dinner. Then we celebrate at my Nanny and Pappa's. We go back home and decorate our very green

Christmas tree. Oh and I almost forgot to tell you what time we got up in the morning. It is sometimes 6:30 or 6:00. Now I'll get back to more specific things. Well we put up green and red lights but this year we put up plain white Christmas lights. On the big back yard window my mom put up red lights in a Christmas tree shape. Christmas is not just for getting presents it's to remember the birth of little baby Jesus. On November 30, we have the Santa Claus Parade in Campbellford. I was in the Santa Claus Parade a couple of times. One time I was on a float for my figure skating. I was a flower. Some other year I was a kid on the Christmas float for school. Santa Claus is suppose to live in the North Pole. After we got home from the Santa Claus Parade I had hot chocolate and marshmallows. Sometimes people hand out candy canes at the Santa Claus Parade. I like Butterscotch candy canes. They're so good! On Christmas night we leave cookies and a glass of milk for Santa Claus to have. I knit a Santa hat to go on our Christmas tree. Most years my family put's up a star on top of the tree, but this year, instead, we put up an angel. It looks very nice with all the other decorations. Now you can tell me what you and you're family do on Christmas eve.

Getting Ready

Santa is getting ready for Christmas. Buttercup is getting the sleigh ready.

David, the elf, said:
"Santa, get ready for Christmas!"

Santa didn't reply because he was sick and didn't want them to know. Eventually he had to tell them.

Santa said: "I'm not feeling very well. You'll have to get someone else to deliver the presents this year."

The elves told Santa that they couldn't find anyone else. Finally Santa remembered that he had a special remedy for sickness. He took some of the medicine and was better by the time he'd called all the reindeer's names.

He went on his yearly journey, delivering presents to all the boys and girls of the world. It was a very good year after all.

Raymond Marr,
Kent Public School.

The Elves

One morning Santa woke and got his mail. He opened it and saw that it was all Christmas cards. He was pleased and went to deliver some presents. At one house he got stuck in the chimney. The elves came to his rescue. He was happy to have such good friends.

Craig Crossman,

My Christmas

by Cassandra Adams
 Grade 1, Sacred Heart

While we wait for Santa we think about Mary and the baby Jesus. We put up our tree and send cards and put a wreath on our door. When Santa comes down our chimney he puts presents under our Christmas tree. Then he goes back up the chimney and flies away.

Later we get up and see what he brought. Then we get ready and go to my Nanny's for a big Christmas dinner.

The disappearance of Rudolph

by Justin Bergeron
Grade 2, Sacred Heart
One Christmas night
Santa was looking all over for Rudolph. Rudolph was not in sight. Then Santa went down the chimney.
When he got down the chimney he saw Rudolph eating carrots.

Santa said, "Rudolph what are you doing?" Then Santa took him up the chimney and he hooked him up onto the reins. Then he flew off back to the North Pole.

Christmas

by Bradley Carswell
Grade 2, Sacred Heart
On Christmas, Santa was coming down the chimney when I first saw him. He got stuck in the chimney. I pulled on his feet and got him out of the chimney.
Santa was happy with me.
He invited me to help him deliver the presents to all of the children. I was excited.

Diary of a hockey mom...

The Tournament

By Mrs. Mom
(Special to The Register)

The Rink - If you have read the other articles in this series and have put into practice some of the hints and suggestions I have made then you are ready to move on to the big one -- The Tournament. If you haven't read and practised then you will have as much luck as I did at my first tournament.

It all started with the coach making the announcement in the dressing room after a game one night. He was excited, the kids were excited and so were most of the parents -- at least that's what my husband told me. Now my husband is a very kind and understanding person and after listening to me complain about never actually seeing a game he offered to babysit the younger children while I took the player to the tournament.

That sounded like a good idea to me and so two weeks later, on a Saturday (at 6 am) off we went to a little village some 75 kilometres away. I didn't know where the village was exactly but a good friend of mine had been there once before the tournament and she gave directions.

Everything went fairly well until the snow started. It was only a few flakes, but the longer I drove the more it came down until we were into a full-fledged blizzard after only 20 minutes of driving. My player was a big help -- he had fallen asleep after getting into the car. But I persevered, after all I had plenty of time -- my friend assured me it would take about 90 minutes and his first game wasn't until 9 am.

I tuned in the radio only to be told the snowplows had been pulled off the roads, we were expecting about 30 cm. of snow with gale-force winds and the 401 was closed. Thank heavens I didn't have to go on the 401.

After several wrong turns and some back-tracking we finally found the arena. Unfortunately, the team was already on the ice and my player wasn't dressed. We hurried into the dressing room where I discovered that we had forgotten shin pads. I had taken them out of the bag to perform a little glue job between the foam and the plastic and I had forgotten to put them back. I ran out to the car and could only find two Goosebump books and an old Sears catalogue. Luckily I had hockey tape in my purse. I managed to sneak my player on to the ice between the first and second periods.

His only complaint was that I hadn't ripped out the pages showing the ladies underwear!

I was finally able to head to the booth for coffee and then to locate the other team parents. It was relaxation time for Mom. The little ones were safely at home with Dad. I would finally get to see a game and it was payback time for all those nights when Dad pretended he didn't know me.

The team played the best hockey I had ever seen them play; mind you, it was the only time I had ever seen them play. But they did win by one goal and got to move on in the Tournament into what they called the "A" Pool. I found out after exactly what that means. It means you don't play again until 3 pm and you have to play all the hard teams. If we had lost the first game we would have gone into the "B" Pool, played the easy teams and we could have played again at 11 am.

I quickly hurried to the dressing room to help my players undress. Here I learned that my husband had not paid for our player to be in the Tournament and without even thinking I handed the Coach a $20 bill. The Coach requested that we keep the players at the arena and not to let them run around too much and waste all their energy. He then handed out lunch tickets to the players. The tickets got each player a bowl of chili, a hot dog, a drink and a Rice Crispie square. Not a bad lunch for the players and it sounded pretty good for the parents too.

We headed up to the booth and I noticed that all the parents allowed the players to go to the head of the line. While I was standing there one of the fathers asked if my player's stick was alright. Not knowing what he was talking about I pursued my player into the line and received the information that the stick was broken but it was okay because the other one was in the back of Dad's truck.

Dad's truck, that was still at home, a two hour drive through a blizzard away. I left my player in the care of one of the other parents and headed out into the storm to find the nearest hardware store. (Stay tuned for next week's episode when Mom heads off into a wintry blizzard to find a hockey stick while her player stays at the arena and buys raffle tickets.)

Bantam Hornets claim "B" tournament title

Late-game rally drives Norwood to win

semi-final.

Also scoring for Norwood were Wes Olver and Jason Begg with Sedgwick, Begg and Bob Archer earning assists.

Warkworth - Norwood's Home Hardware Bantam Hornets rallied with five minutes to play to squeeze by Oshawa 4-3 to claim the "B" championship in the Warkworth tournament, Dec. 14.

It took Norwood just 1:55 to erase a 3-1 deficit and earn their first tourney title in four tries this season.

Scoring the big goals were Wes Olver, Jason Begg and Jeremy Heffernan, who fired in the winner. Olver picked up Norwood's first goal in the second period. Picking up a pair of assists was Kim Kennelly, while Rob Sedgwick, Jamie Coad, Chris Tighe and Jesse Wynne added single helpers.

Norwood lost a close 2-0 decision to St. Anne's in the tournament opener which put them into the "B" pool. The Hornets lost their top scorer Wes Olver on the first shift when he was assessed a penalty for checking from behind.

Heffernan had a huge seven point game (two goals, five assists) while Kennelly fired in a pair of goals and added two assists to lead the Hornets past Bowmanville 7-2 in the "B"

Bantam "B's" go head-to-head with Ennismore

Norwood - Norwood's young Bantam "B's" took on a strong squad from Ennismore with the visitors coming out on top 12-1.

The Hornets got a strong game from goalie Joey Moffat and solid efforts from the rest of the squad.

Suiting up for the "B's" are forwards Michael Hamilton, Derek Fisher, Steve Corkery, George Christopoulos, Todd Pammett, Michael Relgate, Jordan Smit, Pat Ayotte and Josh Logan.

Anchoring the defence are Derek Brand, Joel Barr, Joshua Smit and Matt Walst.

Behind the bench is coach Wayne Hamilton and trainer Lou Walst.

Stay tuned for more "B's" action.

Atom Hornets end six-year drought against Hawks

Norwood finally beats Havelock

Norwood - Sunday, Dec. 15 will go down in Norwood hockey history as the night the Lakeways/Archer Trucking atom Hornets finally defeated the Havelock Hawks taking the match 3-2.

This feat has not been accomplished at the atom level for six years and this year's Hornets team should be very proud of themselves.

Chris Millar and Jake Wynne played an exceptional defensive game as did Mike Hickey and Matt Hilts. Matthew Keeping in net faced 18 shots and stopped all but two.

Scoring for the Hornets were Alex Graham, from Tyler Heffernan and Sam Chung; Heffernan, from Graham and Chung and Dan Garden, from Heffernan and Graham.

Christmas celebrated at Caressant Care Marmora

ACW prepares for New Year

St. Paul's ACW, in Marmora, held their last meeting of 1996 on Dec. 5. 16 members were present, along with three very young prospective members.

The meeting took the form of a Christmas celebration, beginning with a potluck luncheon - which, as always, brought forth a surprising array of delicious creations.

Opening prayers were followed by a devotional reading by Shirley Wilson, taken from the first chapter of the Gospel according to St. Matthew.

Proceeding to the business of the meeting, a discussion took place concerning past and future events. The bazaar and dinner on Dec. 15 proved to be a pleasant and successful undertaking, and note was taken where efficiency could be improved.

Doris Brady, of Tweed, held the winning ticket for the grocery basket, and May Simmons won the edible snowman.

Ruth Potts reported for the Nominating Committee that the executive for 1997 would be: President, Bernice Young; Vice-President, Joan Hutt; Treasurer, Eileen Baines; Secretary, Elizabeth MacGregor; Card Convener, Wendy Danford; Flowers and Gifts Convener, Madeline Gow; Ways, Means and Crafts Convener, Ruth Potts; Press and Publicity, Aline Smith. All agreed to continue these duties.

A vote of thanks was extended to Eileen Baines for her untiring efforts as President for the past two years.

The small prospective members then took on the duty of distributing the exchange gifts. A limit of $3 had taxed our ingenuity but produced interesting, creative and appreciated results.

On Dec. 29, St. Paul's Evensong and Carol Service will be held at 4:30 p.m., followed by a congregational supper.

Our Classified Advertisements appear in all eight of our newspapers: distribution of approximately $7,375

Joy to the world at Christmas

I'm getting ready to go
No one here yet, I'm early Going caroling in the snow

Little children ready for bed Excited about St. Nick

Before we go we'll sing a song
Evening's getting thick
Leaving with sore throats and feet

Laughing as we walk home
Singing really got us beat
Sarah Williams
Grade 7
Stirling Senior School

What Christmas Means to me
Christmas means... Families celebrating a very special day

A two truck for Johnny, a rag doll for Mac
If you didn't guess... It's Christmas day!
And all the children want to go out and play.

Presents for everyone just pick yours out
But whatever you do... Don't cry or shout!

When you go to bed be sure not to frown
'Cause Santa Claus is coming to town.

Riding his sleigh with his big bag of toys
Full to the top for GOOD girls and boys

Bad girls and boys get an ugly lump of coal
While the good girls and boys have the good people roll.

The Elves build toys all year long

"Santa's coming" 33 says "Bong the gong."
Meanwhile, in church the people sing
And outside the church the bells ring.

Santa's on his way just as we speak.
Mom's wrapping presents, be sure not to peek.

So have a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year
And don't run over Santa's reindeer!

Merry Christmas!
Ryan Ackers
Grade 7

Christmas
Some people think that Christmas, Is just for all the gifts. And other people think.

Our Christmas lights are

It is just another myth.

Some think it's for receiving.

And many others say, It's most for believing. His birth on Christmas day.

Some think it's for the goodies.

For all good girls and boys.

The candies and the stockings full, Of lots of little toys.

I know it's for the birth of Jesus,

Who laid in the hay. And died for us to live on earth.

This very day.

Kids at Christmas

The Christmas Tree
One day my family and I went to Canadian Tire to buy a Christmas tree. When we got home it started to snow. Then we started to decorate the tree and when we were done we all went to bed because it was Christmas Eve. St. Nick came down our chimney with joy.
And when he was at the bottom he filled up the socks with lots of candy. Then he put the presents under the tree. When we were all done opening the gifts we felt great.

Santa Claus
Christmas day is filled with joy.
Holly green and red, Reindeer prance around the roof.
Ice forms lightly.
Santa Claus is coming.
Merry sound of a hoof,
Angels take you into bed.
Stockings filled with toys.

Always Be Good
One night Santa was reading letters from children. He was putting good kids in one pile and naughty children in the other pile.
There was a lot of good children this year. At Anne's house they were eating supper. Anne is a little girl with blonde hair and green eyes. She asked her mom if she could write her letter to Santa. Her mom said yes. Anne started her letter like this: Dear Santa.
What I want for Christmas is a teddy bear, clothes, a doll and lots of stuff for my stocking. When Santa got Anne's letter he read it. He put hers in the good pile.
When it was Christmas morning Anne woke up and looked in her stocking. She saw candy canes and other stuff. Then she looked under her tree. She found all of the stuff she asked for.
After that she was always good.

Christmas
Christmas is a time to love and care, to give to meet with your family and friends and then you go to bed and wait for Santa to come, but first you put out the cookies and milk. Then you wait for morning and that's what Christmas is all about.

Jingle
When Christmas time comes And happiness is all around When everyone should be smiling
An elf named Jingle frowned
He frowned because at Christmas time

Santa was as sour as a lime.
In public he was kind and jolly.
But at Christmas time he was so busy
He was even bitter to his cat, Polly.
Poor Mrs. Claus had to hide when he came home.
Nothing would cheer him up

Not even his favourite dessert - snow foam.
Every morning he would get up early Comb his beard all white and pearly,
Check on his elves, in a grouchy way.
Feed the reindeer - throw out some hay
But one day Jingle got fed up with this
The normal Santa - they all had to miss
With the other elves he made a plan

They would make Santa happy - they knew they can
So the next morning
Santa came in grumpy
But all the toys were careless and lumpy
"What's the meaning of this?" Santa said in alarm
"You are sour, so are the toys, Jingle said
It worked like a charm
"Well I never thought..."
said Santa

With a puzzled look on his face
"That I could be such an awful disgrace."
"But I'm always so busy that I get tired, grumpy and mad."
"I haven't realized that I've been treating you bad."
"I won't be grouchy anymore."
"I won't be grumpy, mean, or sore."
"I promise to be nice for the rest of my days."
And that's what happiness - his grumpiness he did raze.

Now he's feeling a jolly and happy - Never feeling blue
And Jingle and the other elves
Like him just as much as you do too!

Christmas
Santa has fallen and broke his leg! That was the headlines in the news. Mommy! Mommy! cried Jimmy will he be O.K.? Yes dear. But will he be better in time to give us our Christmas presents. Yes dear. The rest of the day Jimmy worried about Santa, because tonight was the night Santa should come. That night Jimmy had really weird dreams. That morning he was really surprised when he found all his gifts marked. To: Jimmy From: Santa.

Boy was he happy. When the newspaper came he found the truth out. It was all a fraud. Just to get the little kids worried. Then his mother turned the page. In big letters it said: Santa has fallen and broken his leg. And this was no lie he had fallen of a roof and is in a hospital.

The Box
One Christmas morning as I was rushing downstairs to join my family to open my presents I saw a big box. As I came closer to the big box I discovered that there were two holes in it. I looked at the tag and it said "To: ". But the person's name was smudged. I looked below it and it said from mom and dad. So I decided to wait until my sisters were done opening their presents and if no one claimed it I'd ask my parents who's it is. I thought to myself "I hope I get a puppy." I opened my first present it wasn't a puppy, it was a sweatshirt. The second was a gold ring. The third was three goosebumps books. But the big box was still there. Just then my mom said, "Dear open your big box over there. Guess what it was, it was a puppy!"

At Christmas
Christmas is a time of giving and sharing. You may get presents bought for you, but you don't need to buy. You can make presents. Christmas is usually a time to get together with your family and friends. At suppertime you get a big supper turkey, chicken, rolls, cheese, potatoes, gravy and a salad. Some people have more. Some people with their supper or after they have ice cream. Usually people hang stockings over the fireplace. Children usually look in their stockings when they get up. Children are lucky to get a lot of presents at Christmas. I hope you have a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year to all who are listening.

Christmas
To me Christmas is getting together with families, opening presents from one another and having a wonderful Christmas dinner. Christmas is a glorious time of the year. When I walk outside I can just smell Christmas in the air. Some people think Christmas is just getting presents but, if you had a Christmas with just presents and no families coming over from far away, or what about Christmas dinner? That's not a real Christmas. Presents are to give to people you love or even your friends to celebrate the birth of Jesus. Have you ever heard the saying of give a little, get a little? Well that's just like giving presents. Another thing about Christmas is that just like presents is your stockings that you hang above the fireplace and when Santa's reindeer drops him off he comes down the chimney and fills them with goodies such as candy canes, notepads, pencils, figurines and other things. I love Christmas!

Christmas Poem
Christmas is almost here.
Snow is covering the whole entire ground, tree tops, roofs and the patios too.
I can just see me under the tree shaking and squeezing all of the wonderful things as we are out getting a nice dress just for me. Tonight is the night I've been so long been planning for.

I try to stay up late, but I just can't stay awake.
Crawl into bed with my snuggly pyjamas on waiting for Saint Nicholas to soon come then disappear so I can run down those stairs but I guess

I was too late. The morning comes early so I wake up, but my mom told me to wait or wake her up just in case I get into something just in case.
I think that Santa will wake her up right now.
How strange it is, I wait dread sight I look at the presents lined up in a row then run to the window and yell right out
"Merry Christmas to one and all"
and from that Christmas on I always wanted so still.

Christmas Eve
On Christmas Eve 1993 in Santa's workshop. All the elves were working as hard as they could so they could get the rest of the toys done for tonight so they could take all the toys to all the little girls and boys. At 9 p.m. they got done making all the toys so they packed up all the toys while Santa was getting ready for a long night ahead. When Santa was all ready he got on the sleigh and Mrs. Claus waved good-bye as Santa rode away in the sleigh and Santa waved to the elves and Mrs. Claus they watched Santa Claus disappear in the clouds. Santa went to a house and everybody was still up. So he went to a different house, they were sleeping so he went down the chimney and delivered the presents and put stuff in their stockings and went up the chimney.

He went back to see if they were sleeping, they were sleeping so Santa went down the chimney and put presents under the tree and then he put some gifts in their stockings then he went up the chimney and got his sleigh. Santa went to the next house he parked his sleigh and on the roof and went down the chimney and delivered the presents and went up the chimney and got in his sleigh and went to the next house. When he was done he went back home to see Mrs. Claus if when he got home he saw this present on the floor and it said, To: Santa From: Mrs.
Claus.

Santa took it upstairs and gave Mrs. Claus her present and they opened their presents together. When they were done opening their presents they both went to bed until the morning and when they woke up there was a lot of presents under the tree from the elves.

Alaska

On the date on Dec. 22, 1998, Gramps and Timmy were on their way to Northern Alaska. "What are you going up for?" said Buzz, the bush pilot. "I'm taking my grandson up to see my old friend Mr. Smith," said Gramps. Timmy was 10 years old, and had never been in a plane before. He knew he would love it, but he was a little nervous.

After a short while, they landed in a small town.
Mr. Smith's house was right in the middle of town.
Timmy and Gramps went
in. "Sure you can," said Timmy, just doing as his star said Gramps.
After a long time of playing in the snow, and tobog-ganning, Timmy started back to the cabin. Just then, he saw a bear blocking the path to get back to the cabin. The bear then started chasing Timmy.

Timmy soon spotted a small cliff. Tim was getting bored and scared. He thought that if he started digging, it might take his mind off being scared and bored. So he started to dig and dig and dig.

Back at the cabin, Mr.
Smith and Gramps were starting to think that Timmy might be hurt or in trouble.
"Timmy, Timmy," yelled
Mr. Smith and Gramps.
"Come on, lets go look for him," said Mr. Smith. When they got outside, they found Timmy's footprints and followed them.

After a long time of following Timmy's footprints, they saw bear prints too!
They then saw Timmy on a mountain. One Timmy saw them, he took a few steps, and fell right into his grandpa's arms. Timmy then took a rock out of his pocket and asked his grandpa, "Why is this rock painted yellow?"

"Wake up Timmy, it's Christmas morning," said Gramps. Timmy got up, put on some clothes and said,
"It must've been a dream," he then reached into his pocket, took out a rock and asked his grandpa,
"Why is this rock painted yellow?"

The Christmas Present
One day I looked at the Christmas tree and I saw lights. I also looked under the Christmas tree and I could see a big present. It was my big present, it was a star.

I put my star from Santa

Special.

After the Christmas Spe-

The Christmas Elf

Once upon a time an Elf came outside to play. It was mas." And from that day on they were friends forever.

The Christmas Night

One Christmas night
Timmy and Gramps were sitting on the couch. Timmy saw Santa Claus come down the chimney. He went down the stairs and saw Santa Claus. Santa was in a hurry and he just popped right out of the room. It was now Christmas day morning and Lynn got so many presents that she loved Santa.

Santa Claus
Santa Claus is fun! He comes down the chimney, on Christmas night. He leaves some presents for all good children. Then he goes up the chimney, get into his sleigh and goes to other people's houses.

Santa left a tow truck for me, at my house, last Christmas. Merry Christmas, eve-

Santa
Santa is a very good person. At Christmas, he brings people presents, if they are good. He doesn't bring presents to people who are bad. Santa knows when you are sleeping. He knows when you are awake. Santa is very nice. He likes everybody in the whole world!!

After Christmas
It was Christmas Day and Santa gave all of the people presents. Santa went back home and he had something to eat and drink. He was tired, so he went to bed and slept for two days. Then he told his elves to start mak-next year. Merry Christmas everyone!!

The Abominable Snowman
It was almost Christmas, and I said, "Well, we haven't heard the story about the Abominable Snowman!" My Mom said, "He was awful. He was a man, but he was mad. When he was mad, he crashed ice on the snow, but he was still mad.

He just couldn't "Stop" so he got cold, and had to go live in the Arctic."

But we decided to go to see him.

"Well, we will have to drive," I said.

When we were driving we found that the time was late. The snow was so deep that we couldn't go any further. The snow was so deep that we couldn't go any further.

The Elf
Once there was an elf and she was sad. One of the elves went to tell Santa Claus about the sad elf.

Santa asked the elf, why she was so sad.

The elf said, "I'm sad because I can't work."

Santa Claus said to the elf, "Come and work
please!"

"No, I can't work!" said
the elf.

Santa Claus was not happy, so he asked the elf to come with him. Then Santa said, "Why can't you work?"

"Because I feel sick!"
said the elf.

Santa gave her a candy cane and some soup. Santa Claus was sad because the elf was not working, and because it was getting close to Christmas. The elf was sad, but soon she started to feel better.

"I can work again!" said the elf. And the elf went back to work.

Santa and the elf were not sad now because the elf was feeling better and was able to work. Now the toys would be ready on time for Christmas.

The elf was Santa's little helper, on Christmas Eve, and all the presents were given to the children, on time.

The Scary Santa

Once upon a time, I went to the attic and I saw something. It was big and fat! I thought it was Santa!

Santa sleeps in the attic and the elves live there. I go up there a lot and I see the presents. When I go up there, I also see the machines, that make the toys.

The day before Christmas I went up and saw that,
nothing was left in the attic.
It had been robbed. What would I do?

I looked out the window and I saw the robbers putting everything in the back of their truck. I called the Police, and the Police caught them.
Then the robbers went to jail. All the things went back to the attic and the Police Officers went to make sure Santa and the elves were "Okay".

I got a lot of presents that year, because I helped save Christmas. Merry Christmas!!

Mike Leaver chalked up four assists, three for Ryan Ternion, two each for Derek Thibault and Brian Thompson and singles for Jeremy Francis, Derrick Blackburn, Isaac Murise and Jesse Cassidy.

Saturday was an action-packed day with four games at home. Our Tykes lost a not-so-close match with Marmora in the first game of the day.

Our Novice A's also hosted Marmora on Dec. 14, carrying off a 5-2 victory. Darby Smith, Jonathan McCannell and Brennan Vezina scored one each, with a pair for Chad McLean, Travis Gordon, Darby Smith, Chad Stein, Jonathan McConnell and Mike McCullough posted assists.

Our Novice B Wildcats followed the A's with a not-so-close shut-out by Frankford. Cody Clifford gave 110 per cent in this match, earning the Wildcat of the Week. Cody receives his choice of a movie or video game rental comp-ments of Madoc Video. Lady Luck didn't favor our Atom B's in their match with Frankford on Dec. 14 as they too were shut-out by the Huskies.

Please join us over the Holidays for plenty of tournament action - Bantams on Dec. 23, Atom B's on Dec. 27, PeeWee B on Dec. 30 and Novice A's on Jan.

3. Don't forget the Minor Hockey Christmas draw on Dec. 20. Tickets are $1 each and feature a chance to win overnight accommodation for a family at the Ambassador Hotel in Kingston, a cheese basket from Eldorado Cheese, Brunch at Two Loons or $20 in Bell Canada long distance gift certificates.

success at this year's yard sale, so we decided to have another one next year. The date will be May 17, 1997, it all goes well.

Our wheel chair ramp is finished, carpet and all. Thanks to Glen Rollins. We had quite a discussion on the Community Watch Program. This program has seen good results especially in Marmora.

Shirley McCoy read a piece from a newspaper about the different customs in different countries. In Madoc, it is called Flower of the Holy Night. Shirley also read a story of a little boy's visit to a Woodcutters family on Christmas day. Jean Sargent read a short story about a child's Christmas Angel. All the ladies sang several Christmas carols. We also had a cookie exchange. All the cookies had to be homemade. We would have went outside and made snowmen and snowangels if there had been snow. Right ladies!

Merry Christmas to all and have a Happy New Year.

Then when it was Christmas night, the sled was ready to go on the roofs of all the houses, so Santa Claus could go down the chimneys, and leave some presents for the children. Merry Christmas!!

I'm Coming Home
Fred Davis' heart sank. He looked into the gloomy English skies that matched his lonely feelings, and pondered another Christmas alone. He felt himself drift away, thinking about his son and wife. His son Jacob would have been six. He wondered if his wife was alive and if so, would she be waiting for him?
The war was over but after five long years at war, he felt no joy, only sadness. He did not even have his family to give him the strength to carry on.

He walked for two days with his battalion until they reached the ocean where they boarded a massive ship, and after three weeks of travelling on the sea they reached Canada.

There he boarded a train that would take him to his home in Appleton. He had just enough money.

As he sat down in the warm train, a big jolly man with a huge smile across his face asked if he could sit beside the man. The man said that his name was Sebastian. He talked all about the quiet man's family. After Sebastian heard the story, Sebastian offered to help him find them. He had heard about the fire and the firemen had found no people. The train screeched to a halt and the man thanked Sebastian but said that he could find them, as he ran out of the train.

The man's heart was pounding and his coat flying behind him when he suddenly stopped in front of his parents. He opened the door to hear a small voice ask, "Can I put the angel on the tree mom?"

The Christmas Story
One Christmas Eve there was a beautiful house, and everyone loved it. They wished that they had the same house. On Christmas night Santa came, and he threw magic dust out on the houses, and the houses looked like the house that everyone loved. The other house loved their houses too. So everyone were friends.

Mystic's Rescue

It was a week before Christmas. My brother fluter was snooping in my Aunt's closet. I would have told on him but my Aunt gets me in trouble for snitching. When he tells on me he doesn't get in trouble. I don't think I have introduced myself. My name is Mystic. I am a Centaur. I am sixteen years old. I have dark brown hair, brown eyes, light brown skin and a chestnut body.

We live in a land called Mythical.

Now as I was saying, My Aunt believes anything my six-year-old brother says. I live with my Aunt because my parents died in a shipwreck. That's what my Aunt told me. Right now I am doing my chores. I have a list a metre long with chores. I have to do all the chores in one day. I am sort of like Cinderella. My brother is a wicked sister and my Aunt is the stepmother. I have a wish that Santa Claus would come rescue me and the boy Centaur from down the street. The boy's name is Turf. That is only a dream and a wish.

While I was dreaming my Aunt was yelling, "Mystic! Some one is here to see you! Make it snappy!" I ran to the front door. My Aunt is a little bit nice. When I reached the front door Turf was standing there. "Hi!" he said. "My name is Turf. You probably already knew that. What's yours?"

Turf asked, "Um, ah Mystic." I said, "I could feel my cheeks burning up. I was wondering if you would like to come over on Christmas." Turf said, "I would love to." He left and I went back to my chores feeling happy.

A week later it was Christmas. From my Aunt I got rags and soap. I tore upstairs got on my clothes and ran downstairs as fast as I could so that my Aunt wouldn't see me. My Aunt didn't see, but my brother did. He told my Aunt that I hit him. I told her I didn't but she sent me to do my chores over again. There goes my wish.

I finished my chores at 11:30 p.m. I went to sleep. I woke up at twelve-thirty a.m. feeling a cold breeze through the window. I got up to close it and there I saw Santa and his reindeer. "Ho! Ho! Ho! Merry Christmas Mystic!" he shouted. Our Santa is the ordinary Santa. "I have come to rescue you!" he said. Rescued? Finally! Some one cares! I thought, "How would you like to live at the North Pole and to be one of my helpers?" he continued. Be one of his helpers? Cool! I thought. I told him I'd be right there. I got my belongings together and climbed in the sleigh. We travelled to the North Pole. When we were there he gave me warm helper clothes. I started on making toys.

I enjoy it here. Turf moved to the north with Santa. I found out what happened to my parents. I have a happy life now. Turf and I would like to wish you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!

Meghan's Christmas

It was the night before Christmas and all through the house not a creature was stirring not even a mouse until... Meghan came!! Meghan was a five-year-old girl who gets whatever she wants and that is usually everything!! Her parents want her to be the very best, but when Meghan is at school she fights with the other children when she is asked to share the things she is playing with.

One day, I believe it was two weeks before Christmas, Meghan was called to the office and so were parents. Meghan heard the other kids talking about Santa and toys. They said she would never get any toys for Christmas. On Christmas, she woke up and ran downstairs to see what she got. When she got there, she saw nothing but a letter that said:

Dear Meghan: I hope you learned a lesson and if you are good for two weeks you'll get a gift.

Dear Santa: Believe it or not she was good and did get her gift in the end.

Mrs. Claus Flies To Canada

Mrs. Claus was tired of sitting around all Christmas. So she said, "I know I will take Santa's sleigh and fly around the world. But which way to go, left or right? I know I think Scotland is straight, I'll go to Scotland." But later she ended up in Eldorado. She flew till she saw a beautiful house where she saw three children playing outside. "Oh dear, I must not be in Scotland! Hello, children. Could you tell me where I am?" "Eldorado." "Thank names?" "Ashley,

Shannon and Jacqui." May I talk to your mother?" "Sure. Come on." Later, Mrs. Claus said her goodbyes and left. In the morning Ashley, Shannon and Jacqui had extra toys in their stockings.

The Grinch

One day the Grinch had some nasty things up his sleeve. He wanted to wreck Christmas. He made a Santa suit to trick all the kids. And then he made a sled. The dog was the reindeer. He could not fly. So they fell down and crashed and crashed the sled. They got to the first house. A little girl heard him. She saw him taking the Christmas tree. But Santa caught the Grinch and made him stop. So the Grinch went home alone with his tricks.

Old Saint Nick
One Christmas Day someone comes. He's jolly and giving. He comes around one day a year. He doesn't make the presents, his helpers do and his helpers are called elves. They make the toys. He wears red and white. He comes at night. And you better be sleeping because he knows when you are not sleeping. If you've been bad he won't give you presents. So you better be good.

Saint Nick

Once upon a time there was a man that lived alone. That Christmas he went to get some wood and he saw a reindeer and a jolly old man. I hollered, "Who are you?" He hollered, "Saint Nick." All that night, I had dreams about him. In the morning I had presents everywhere.

The Best Christmas Ever
It was Christmas Eve. I was downstairs getting Santa's snack ready. When I heard a crash. I ran up to my room. I looked on my shelf. I saw an unusual shoe with golden sand around it. I peeked in. I saw a man about five inches tall. He asked me if Mollyann and I wanted to come with him to see Santa. I was excited. The sand man shrunk Mollyann and I until we were five inches tall. I hopped in the shoe and off we went. I saw lots of stars in the sky. After about five minutes we were there. "Wow" I said. I saw a big red castle, with lots of colourful lights. We flew threw a tiny crack in a window. I saw about a hundred elves working on toys. They greeted Molly. The sand man and me, then Santa came in the room. He gave me a special cookie. He liked Mollyann a lot. I saw the reindeer. One of the elves took me on a tour of the castle. I must have seen a hundred toys on each shelf. When the sand man said it was nearly time to go because Santa had to deliver the toys. I asked if I could go for a swim and if I could go on a water slide. Santa said yes. I went down so fast it wasn't funny! When we were going I asked if I could go to ride on Santa's sleigh with him. Santa said yes. I saw the elves work quickly working presents neatly. When all the gifts were packed I saw twelve elves hitching up the eight reindeer. When everything was ready I saw Santa hop in the sleigh. I said goodbye to the sand man, the elves and Mrs. Claus. We went high in the air. When we got to my house Santa landed on our roof. He pointed and there was a huge slide I went down it. Molly went behind me. We landed in our own beds I went back to bed but in five minutes I woke up and it was morning. I ran to the living room everyone was there tearing open their gifts. I opened mine and I got a snow shaker with a little water slide and a girl on it. I enjoyed that Christmas. It was the best ever.

The First Christmas

On the first Christmas, Joseph and Mary had to go to Bethlehem to be taxed. When they got there, there was no room in the inn, so they had to go to a stable to spend the night. While they were there, Mary was expecting a child. When they were there, Mary had her child, then a star appeared it showed the shepherds. It also showed the Wise Men where the new baby Jesus was. Shortly after the stable was quite full of many, many animals. There were cows, pigs, lambs, sheep, goats and many many more. I think that's all I can say for now. So good bye for now. Merry Christmas everybody.
